Quit WB job, join politics

Muhith pokes outgoing country boss

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Finance Minister AMA Muhith yesterday advised that the World Bank Country Director Ellen Goldstein had better quit job and join politics in Bangladesh.

"I have an advice for her. It will be better if she gave up her World Bank job and joined politics here," Muhith said this to reporters after a meeting of the cabinet committee on purchase at the secretariat.

When reporters drew his attention to the

Dhaka to turn into a photo gallery

Asia's largest photography festival begins today

SUSHMITA S PREETHA

The largest photography festival in Asia, Chobi Mela, is set to turn the capital into a colossal art gallery from today as it kicks off at seven venues across the city. The seventh edition of the biennial festival will feature the works of 34 photographers from 24 countries in a display of diversity of thought, expression and form.

The launching ceremony will take place at Shilpakala Academy with parallel exhibitions at Alliance Francaise de Dhaka, The Bengal Gallery of Fine Arts, Chobir Haat, Dhaka Art Centre, Drik Gallery and the Faculty of Fine Arts at Dhaka University.

Footage questions
autopsy report
HC observes

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday observed that there were discrepancies between the autopsy report and the footage of Bishwajit Das killing incident.

It said the footage showed Bishwajit had sustained several injuries, but the autopsy report claimed that he had succumbed to only one stab injury measuring three and a half inches long and one and a half inches deep.
