Global Partnership for Social Accountability CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR BANGLADESH Deadline to submit proposals: Thursday, March 14th, 2013

The Global Partnership for Social Accountability (GPSA) is a coalition of donors, governments and civil society organizations (CSOs) that aims to improve development results by supporting capacity building for enhanced citizen feedback and participation. The GPSA will contribute to country-level governance reforms and improved service delivery. To achieve this objective, the GPSA provides strategic and sustained support to CSOs' social accountability initiatives aimed at strengthening transparency and accountability.

The GPSA is pleased to announce its First Global Call for Proposals. In Bangladesh, the GPSA seeks proposals on Social Accountability from Civil Society Organizations that will:

- Strengthen citizen capacity to access local budget data to engage constructively in budget planning and implementation at the Union Parishad level within the framework of the Right to Information Act 2009, the open budgeting provisions of the Local Government Act 2009 and the Union Parishad Operational Manual of August 2012;
- Monitor and report on the open budgeting process at the Union Parishad level, including consistency of public expenditure planning and implementation with provisions in the Union Parishad Operational Manual.

Information emerging from the GPSA supported activities will be used by the Ministry of Local Government, Rural Development and Cooperatives to ensure a transparent and responsive public finance management system at the local level.

GPSA Funding Modalities

- Social Accountability Initiatives and Programs.
- Mentoring and capacity-building of nascent CSO, including on-granting.
- Strengthening Institutional Capacity of CSOs working on Social Accountability.

Grants can support:

- Up to 100% of project's total cost • Up to 50% of grantee's total
- organizational budget.

Workers' organizations
