End extortion or face indefinite strike

Tank lorry owners give 24-hr deadline

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Dinajpur

Oil tanker owners and workers of Parbatipur upazila yesterday demanded an end to extortion by criminals within 24 hours.

They brought out a procession in the town, held a rally and submitted a memorandum to the office of UNO to realise the demand.

In the memo, they threatened to go on an indefinite strike in northern districts if the demands were not met within the deadline.

Md Zillur Rahman, assistant commissioner (land), received the memorandum.

At the rally, the speakers said that plying of tank lorries has become tough due to continuous intimidation by extortions in the area.

They called upon the authorities to arrest the extortionists who attacked Md Fazlul Haque, general secretary of Parbatipur Tank

Lorry Shramik Union and its joint secretary Sarwar Hossain Sagar in the town on Sunday.

"If our demand is not met, fuel supply will stop from February 20", said Fazlul Haque.

Among others, Mamunur Rashid, general secretary of Dinajpur district Tank Lorry Malik Samiti and Monjur Alam, president of Parbatipur upazila Shramik Union, spoke.

CLASH WITH COPS IN BOROLEKHA

224 Jamaat-Shibir men sued

UNB, Moulvibazar

Police filed a case against 224 Jamaat-Shibir men on charge of attacking them and arrested two people in this connection in Borolekha upazila on Friday.

Assistant Sub-inspector Abdul Ahad of Borolekha PS filed the case at night, accusing 33 identified Jamaat-Shibir men and 191 unknown others.

The arrestees include Maulana Shamsul Islam, vice-principal of Hatalia Dakhil Madrasa and Maruf Ahmed, a Jamaat activist of Jyotirbanda village in the upazila.

Witnesses said a clash ensued when the activists of Jamaat-e-Islami and its student wing Chhatra Shibir of Dakkhinbhangh unit brought out a procession in support of their various demands, including the release of their party leader Delwar Hossain Sayeedi, in the area after juma prayers.

A chase and counter-chase took place as police obstructed them which followed a clash that left six people, including four policemen, injured.

The injured policemen were identified as ASI of Borolekha PS Rajab Ali, constable Ratan Mia and Maruf Ahmed and Rubel Ahmed of reserve police.

Police arrested Shamsul Islam from the spot during the clash while Maruf was later arrested from his house at night.

Two held after gunfight: Arms seized

UNB, Laxmipur

Police arrested two 'criminals' and recovered a pistol and two bullets after a gunfight at Barolia in Sadar upazila of the district on Sunday.

The arrestees were identified as Shah Alam, son of Sahabuddin of Barolia village, and Monowar Hossain, son of Nazrul Islam of Dattapara village of the upazila.

Locals said, on information that a gang was moving around with firearms at Barolia at about 5:00pm, a team from Dattapara police camp raided in the area.

Sensing the presence of police, the criminals opened fire at the law enforcers who also fired back, triggering a gunfight.

Later, police arrested bullet-hit Shah Alam and Monowar from the spot and seized the arms.

Shah Alam was admitted to Laxmipur Sadar Hospital.
