

BHADRABILA VILLAGE IN NARAIL IN FESTIVE MOOD Pranab to visit in-laws' house on Tuesday

PONUEL S BOSE, Narail

Bhadrabila village under Sadar upazila of the district is in festive mood as Indian President Pranab Mukherjee is expected to visit the house of his in-laws at the village during his three-day official visit to Bangladesh, beginning today.

Mukherjee will visit his in-laws' house for the first time since he took over as president.

District administration sources said a helicopter, carrying Pranab Mukherjee and his wife Shuvra Mukherjee, will land on Narail Government Boys' High School ground in the town at 10:55am on March 5.

Soon after their arrival, they will go to Bhadrabila village on the bank of the Chitra River. Deputy Commissioner Md Zohirul Haque said the Indian president is likely to stay at his father-in-law's house at the village for 55 minutes and then leave for Kushtia to visit Tagore's Kuthibari at Shilaidaha.

Kazi Rakib Cintu, a resident of Bhadrabila village, said, "It is a great pleasure for us that Pranab Mukharjee, our brother in law, will visit our village. We will accord a warm reception to him."

Shuvra was born to late Amarendra Ghose and Mira Rani Ghose on October 17, 1943. She is the eldest among four brothers and four sisters. Shuvra's family but her brother Kanai Lal Ghose moved to India in 1952.

Shuvra married Pranab Mukherjee when she was a student of history department of Kolkata University in 1957.

During the 1971 Liberation War, Pakistani occupation army and their local collaborators vandalised the temple and Amarendra's house at Bhadrabila village. After liberation, Kanai Lal rebuilt the temple and the house.

Narail district administration has renovated the house, while the district council and LGED Narail district administration has renovated the house of Indian President Pranab Mukherjee's father-in-law at Bhadrabila village. Mukherjee, who will arrive in the capital today on a three-day official tour, is expected to visit the house on March 5, inset, repair of an eight kilometers road that links the village with the district town is going on in full swing.

department are repairing the road leading to Bhadrabila village, around eight kilometers away from the district headquarters.

In 1995, Shuvra Mukharjee along with her daughter Shormistha Mukharjee visited the house at Bhadrabila village.

Khulna Jubo League activist murdered

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Khulna

Criminals killed a Jubo League activist at Amdabad village in Rupsha upazila yesterday afternoon.

The deceased was identified as Selim Reza alias Selim, 40, son of Jalal Uddin Sheikh of Natun Bazar area in the city.

He was an activist of Ward No 22 of city unit Jubo League and former editor of the daily Kalantar, a local newspaper.

Ashraf Hossain, officer in-charge at Rupsha police station, said a gang waylaid Selim, also a fish trader, while coming from the city along with his four associates. They stabbed him mercilessly, leaving him dead on the spot at around 3:00pm.

The incident took place when he was returning home after attending an election campaign in favour of his brother at the office of cargo handling workers' union in the upazila. Selim was accused in several criminal cases including extortion, said the OC.

He might have been killed over previous enmity, said superintendent of police of Khulna Abdur Rauf.

Meanwhile, Khulna city unit Awami League blamed Jamaat-Shibir men for the killing.

In a statement, city mayor and president of the unit Talukder Abdul Khaleque and its secretary Mizanur Rahman Mizan demanded immediate arrest and punishment of the killers.

Seven robbers, arrested by coastguards with six firearms, huge bullets and 69 mobile phone sets from Laldiar Char in Pathorghata upazila of Barguna yesterday, are lined up in front of the local police station.

Robbers kidnap 20 from Bay, coastguards free 31

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

At least 20 fishermen were kidnapped by robbers in Bay, some 20 kilometres off Kuakata beach, on Friday afternoon.

Among the victims, only Eunus, 40, and Akkas, 35 could be identified till filing of this report yesterday.

Fisherman Md Sahidul Islam who survived the attack, said a gang of 20/25 on three trawlers swooped on 20 trawlers, about 20km in the south of the beach, and abducted at least 20 people besides the drivers of the trawlers.

The gang also looted cash, fuel and fishes from the trawlers and fled the scene, he said.

Lt. Diponkar, staff officer of coastguard in south zone, said they heard about the incident and had already sent a patrol team to rescue the fishermen.

Meanwhile, members of the coastguard rescued 31 abducted fishermen from Laldiar Char in Pathorghata upazila of Barguna district yesterday noon.

They also arrested seven alleged robbers along with arms.

Of the rescued fishermen, 20 were abducted in Bay near the char area on Friday while the rest were picked up last week.

Contacted, Lt. Diponkar told this correspondent that on secret information, they raided the area and rescued the fishermen.

"We also arrested the seven kidnappers along with six arms, huge bullets and 69 mobile phone sets", he said.

The arrestees were handed over to Pathorghata police station, said the staff officer.
