Bangla New Year celebrated

STAR REPORT

The country ushered in Nababarsha, the Bangla New Year, with characteristic gusto and carnival-like festivals, bidding farewell to the past year's tribulations and hoping that 1420 would bring peace, prosperity and harmony.

In Dhaka, lakhs of people in the traditional red and white attire poured into open spaces and streets on the April 14 national holiday from morning till night for Bangladesh's biggest secular celebration.

The focal point for Pahela Baishakh celebrations, as in the last three decades, was Ramna Batamul, the defining symbol of Bangalee liberalism and secularism, as Chhayanaut performers began programmes at sunrise with an instrumental song.

Around 9:00am, the trademark Mangal Shobhajatra was brought out by students and teachers of Dhaka University's Faculty of Fine Arts featuring popular motifs from Bangla folklore and culture.

Accompanying them were former Jamaat ameer Ghulam Azam's demonic effigy, symbolising the atrocities of war criminals, and a 50-foot dragon, signifying the "dark forces" out to annihilate the Liberation War's spirit, in tune with this year's theme "Razakar Mukto Bangladesh, Muktijuddho Onishesh" (Razakar-free Bangladesh, endless struggle for freedom).

Intricate motifs on Manik Mia Avenue and other roads turned the concrete streets into giant canvases while many enjoyed the traditional panta bhat (rice soaked in water overnight) with fried Hilsa and other traditional foods.

Noted singers, including Rezwana Chowdhury Bonna, Firoza Begum and Ayyub Bachchu, performed at a programme Channel i organised at Bangabandhu International Conference Centre.

Chittagong Samity-Dhaka organised a cultural programme from 10:00am at its auditorium where noted artists, rhymesters and poets from Chittagong performed, reports our Chittagong correspondent.

Earlier, Sylhet chief judicial magistrate ordered to send the two to jail as they attended the court in a case filed against them over vandalism of Sylhet Central Shahid Minar.

Govt won't let recruiters fleece foreign job seekers

Says minister

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The government will not allow the recruiting agencies to charge foreign job seekers irrationally, Expatriates' Welfare and Overseas Employment Minister Khandker Mosharraf Hossain said yesterday.

"We cannot let the private recruiting agencies commit 'dacoity' in the name of migration cost. They (agencies) had been asked to take Tk from 70,000 to Tk 80,000 from each job seeker but they did not obey it," he told The Daily Star.

About the government's ongoing discord with the recruiting agencies' association, Baira, he said the Baira would again charge a job seeker Tk 4 lakh though they were asked to take Tk 40,000 for Malaysia.

"We want to create awareness among people that the migration charges taken by the recruiting agencies are unreasonable."

able and that migration can be less costly."

The minister said the recruiting agencies would send workers to any country, including Malaysia, when the manpower sector would come under accountability.

The Bangladesh Association of International Recruiting Agencies (Baira) launched an indefinite strike by suspending its manpower export on April 8 to protest the government's decision, taken last year, to send workers to Malaysia under state arrangements to curb the involvement of middlemen.

Baira President M Shahjalal Mazumder said they would continue the strike unless the government allowed them to send workers abroad. He also said the Baira was ready to cooperate in ensuring transparency in the recruitment process.

Mazumder denied overcharging job seekers.
