

Poor return empty-handed as OMS ata sold on black market

OUR CORRESPONDENT,
Lalmोनirhat

The government authorised dealers in the district town are allegedly selling ata (coarse flour) meant for Open Market Sale (OMS) on the black market, depriving the people of the low-income group of the item at fair price.

Locals alleged that the authorities concerned here were aware of the malpractice, but they did not take any steps against the dealers for committing such criminal offence with the connivance of some millers and food department staff.

Refuting the allegation against some food department staff, district Food Contoller Zohurul Haque said OMS dealers and millers were involved in the wrongdoing.

Admitting to his failure to take action against the dishonest dealers, the food official said all the 12 dealers were appointed on political consideration. "So, they don't care the monitoring team and its drive", he added.

Sources in the district food department said the government launched open market sale of ata in the district in June last year and each of the 12 dealers gets
