

TRAGEDY IN SAVAR

- 1) The scene of the devastating building collapse at Savar yesterday. Hidden from view and bearing the weight of the debris of the nine-storey Rana Plaza lies another building, where the arrow is.
- 2) Members of Gonoshasthaya Kendra provide water and oral saline to rescuers in the sweltering midday heat.
- 3) Members of Bangladesh Army join in the rescue efforts.
- 4) The lifeless body of a woman being pulled out from the rubble.
- 5) A garment worker who survived the collapse falls at the feet of a nurse at Enam Medical College and Hospital, mourning the loss of her mother who could not make it to safety. Several garment factories were housed in the building.
- 6) Other workers rush the rescued to nearby clinics for medical assistance.
- 7) A worker waits for her lost colleagues.
- 8) The foot of a dead, kept in row with others, at Enam Medical College and Hospital.

PHOTO: INAM AHMED, RASHED SHUMON, PALASH KHAN

Left, Rana Plaza and the Brac Bank in front of it as seen before yesterday's collapse. Right, the post-disaster view.

