Hurdles in the Noble Profession

With the boom in the number of television channels and newspapers, journalism has become an attractive career choice for both men and women. For women however, there are extra challenges in the profession that are exclusive to their gender. Despite the goal of trying to represent a democratic, progressive, society, both print and electronic media have not been able to remove the stigma of parochial attitudes that the overall culture suffers from.

14-15 Current Affairs

Welcome, Mr President

The way the situation is sharply deteriorating, the newly elected President may have to take steps to open talks with the political parties to save the country from plunging into a political turmoil.

Digging out the Past

Still in its infancy, archaeological research requires more patronisation if we want to learn about our roots.
