

TIME RUNNING OUT AT SAVAR

1) Bangladesh Army members yesterday going in for rescue operations through a hole dug on the roof of the nine-storey Rana Plaza, which collapsed on April 24. 2) Volunteers provide saline water to families of victims at Savar Adhar Chandra High School. 3) Journalists crowd around Maj Gen Chowdhury Hasan Suhrawardy of the 9th Infantry Division during a press briefing beside the collapse site. 4) Civilian rescuers protest a decision, which was later suspended, yesterday to abandon rescue operations. 5) Mousumi holds a picture of her missing mother, Sagorika, a worker of one of the five garment factories housed in the building, at the high school. 6) Rescuers carry out a dead body from the ruins. 7) Cranes on standby beside the site. 8) A garment worker, whose two legs had to be amputated to free her from the rubble, at Enam Medical College and Hospital. 9) X-rays show the fractured limbs of one rescued worker at the hospital. 10) A doctor records details of a survivor. 11) Families of victims wait in a queue at the high school. 12) The stitched up wound of a rescued worker at the hospital.

PHOTO: SK ENAMUL HAQ, ANISUR RAHMAN

