INT'L LABOUR CONFERENCE Dhaka faces hard time ILO mission due on May 1

SHAKHAWAT LITON

Following the Rana Plaza disaster, the government may face a hard time at the International Labour Conference scheduled for early June this year, said officials concerned.

The tragedy, which claimed the lives of 384 people as of yesterday evening, caused by lack of safety standards would be the main agenda of the conference, said officials of the labour ministry and the International Labour Organisation office in Dhaka.

A high level mission led by Gilbert Fossoun Hounbo - ILO deputy director general for field operations and partnership, and the former prime minister of Togo -- would be sent to Dhaka on May 1 to assess safety measures in the apparels sector and determine its next course of actions, said an ILO senior official from Dhaka seeking anonymity.

The group would meet the government's top officials

Harare win for Savar victims

SAKEB SUBHAN from Harare

Bangladesh have just beaten Zimbabwe in the second Test here. It was only their fourth Test win in 13 years, surely an occasion to celebrate. But when Shakib Al Hasan trapped number eleven Kyle Jarvis in front to seal the 143-run win and level the two-Test series 1-1, the celebrations were muted -- in the dressing room, they did not even sing their team song.

It may just have been that the win only levelled a series which they expected to win, but the real reason yesterday was that Bangladesh's players were not in much of a

Rana owes Jong one 15-day remand granted for him; father arrested

HELEMUL ALAM and BELAL HOSSAIN BIPLOB

Sohel Rana, owner of the collapsed Rana Plaza, has risen to the top of Savar's underworld in the last four years under the direct patronage of local MP Murad Jong.

A dropout at class-VIII and born to a very poor family, Rana emerged as one of the richest men in Savar in a decade or so. His power and money drew the attention of the local politicians and law enforcers.

As a reward for his loyalty to Murad Jong and Fakhrul Alam Samir, president of Dhaka district Chhatra League, Rana was made general secretary of its Savar municipality unit in 1998.

Watched over by local political leaders,

Call off hartal 42 trade bodies urge opposition

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Business leaders yesterday urged the opposition alliance to withdraw the May 2 hartal to help the nation fast recover from the Savar tragedy and for the sake of economy.

"The rescue operations at the collapsed Rana Plaza are still continuing. At least on humanitarian grounds, BNP should withdraw the hartal," the Federation of Bangladesh Chambers of Commerce and Industry said in a statement also signed by 42 other chambers and trade bodies.

Workers stage rowdy protests

Many factories forced to stop production amid vandalism on streets

STAR REPORT

Many garment factories faced an unannounced shutdown yesterday after thousands of apparel workers took to the streets of Gazipur, Savar, Narayanganj and Ashulia to protest the deaths of their fellow workers in the Savar building collapse.

The agitating workers blocked highways, vandalised vehicles and disrupted traffic, forcing factory owners to send their workers on leave for the day.

The authorities in Gazipur and Narayanganj deployed
