

Sylhet BCL factions clash

Somoy TV journalists attacked

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Two rival factions of Sylhet district unit of pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League locked in a clash over establishing supremacy and extortion in Government MC College and nearby Tilagar areas of Sylhet city yesterday.

During the hour-long clash, both the groups exchanged at least 30 rounds of gunshots, said police and locals.

The BCL activists belonging to the faction led by its Sylhet district unit acting president Hiron Mahmud Nipu and activists of another BCL faction led by the district unit former (relieved) president Pankaj Purkayostha locked in the clash around 12:00pm, they said.

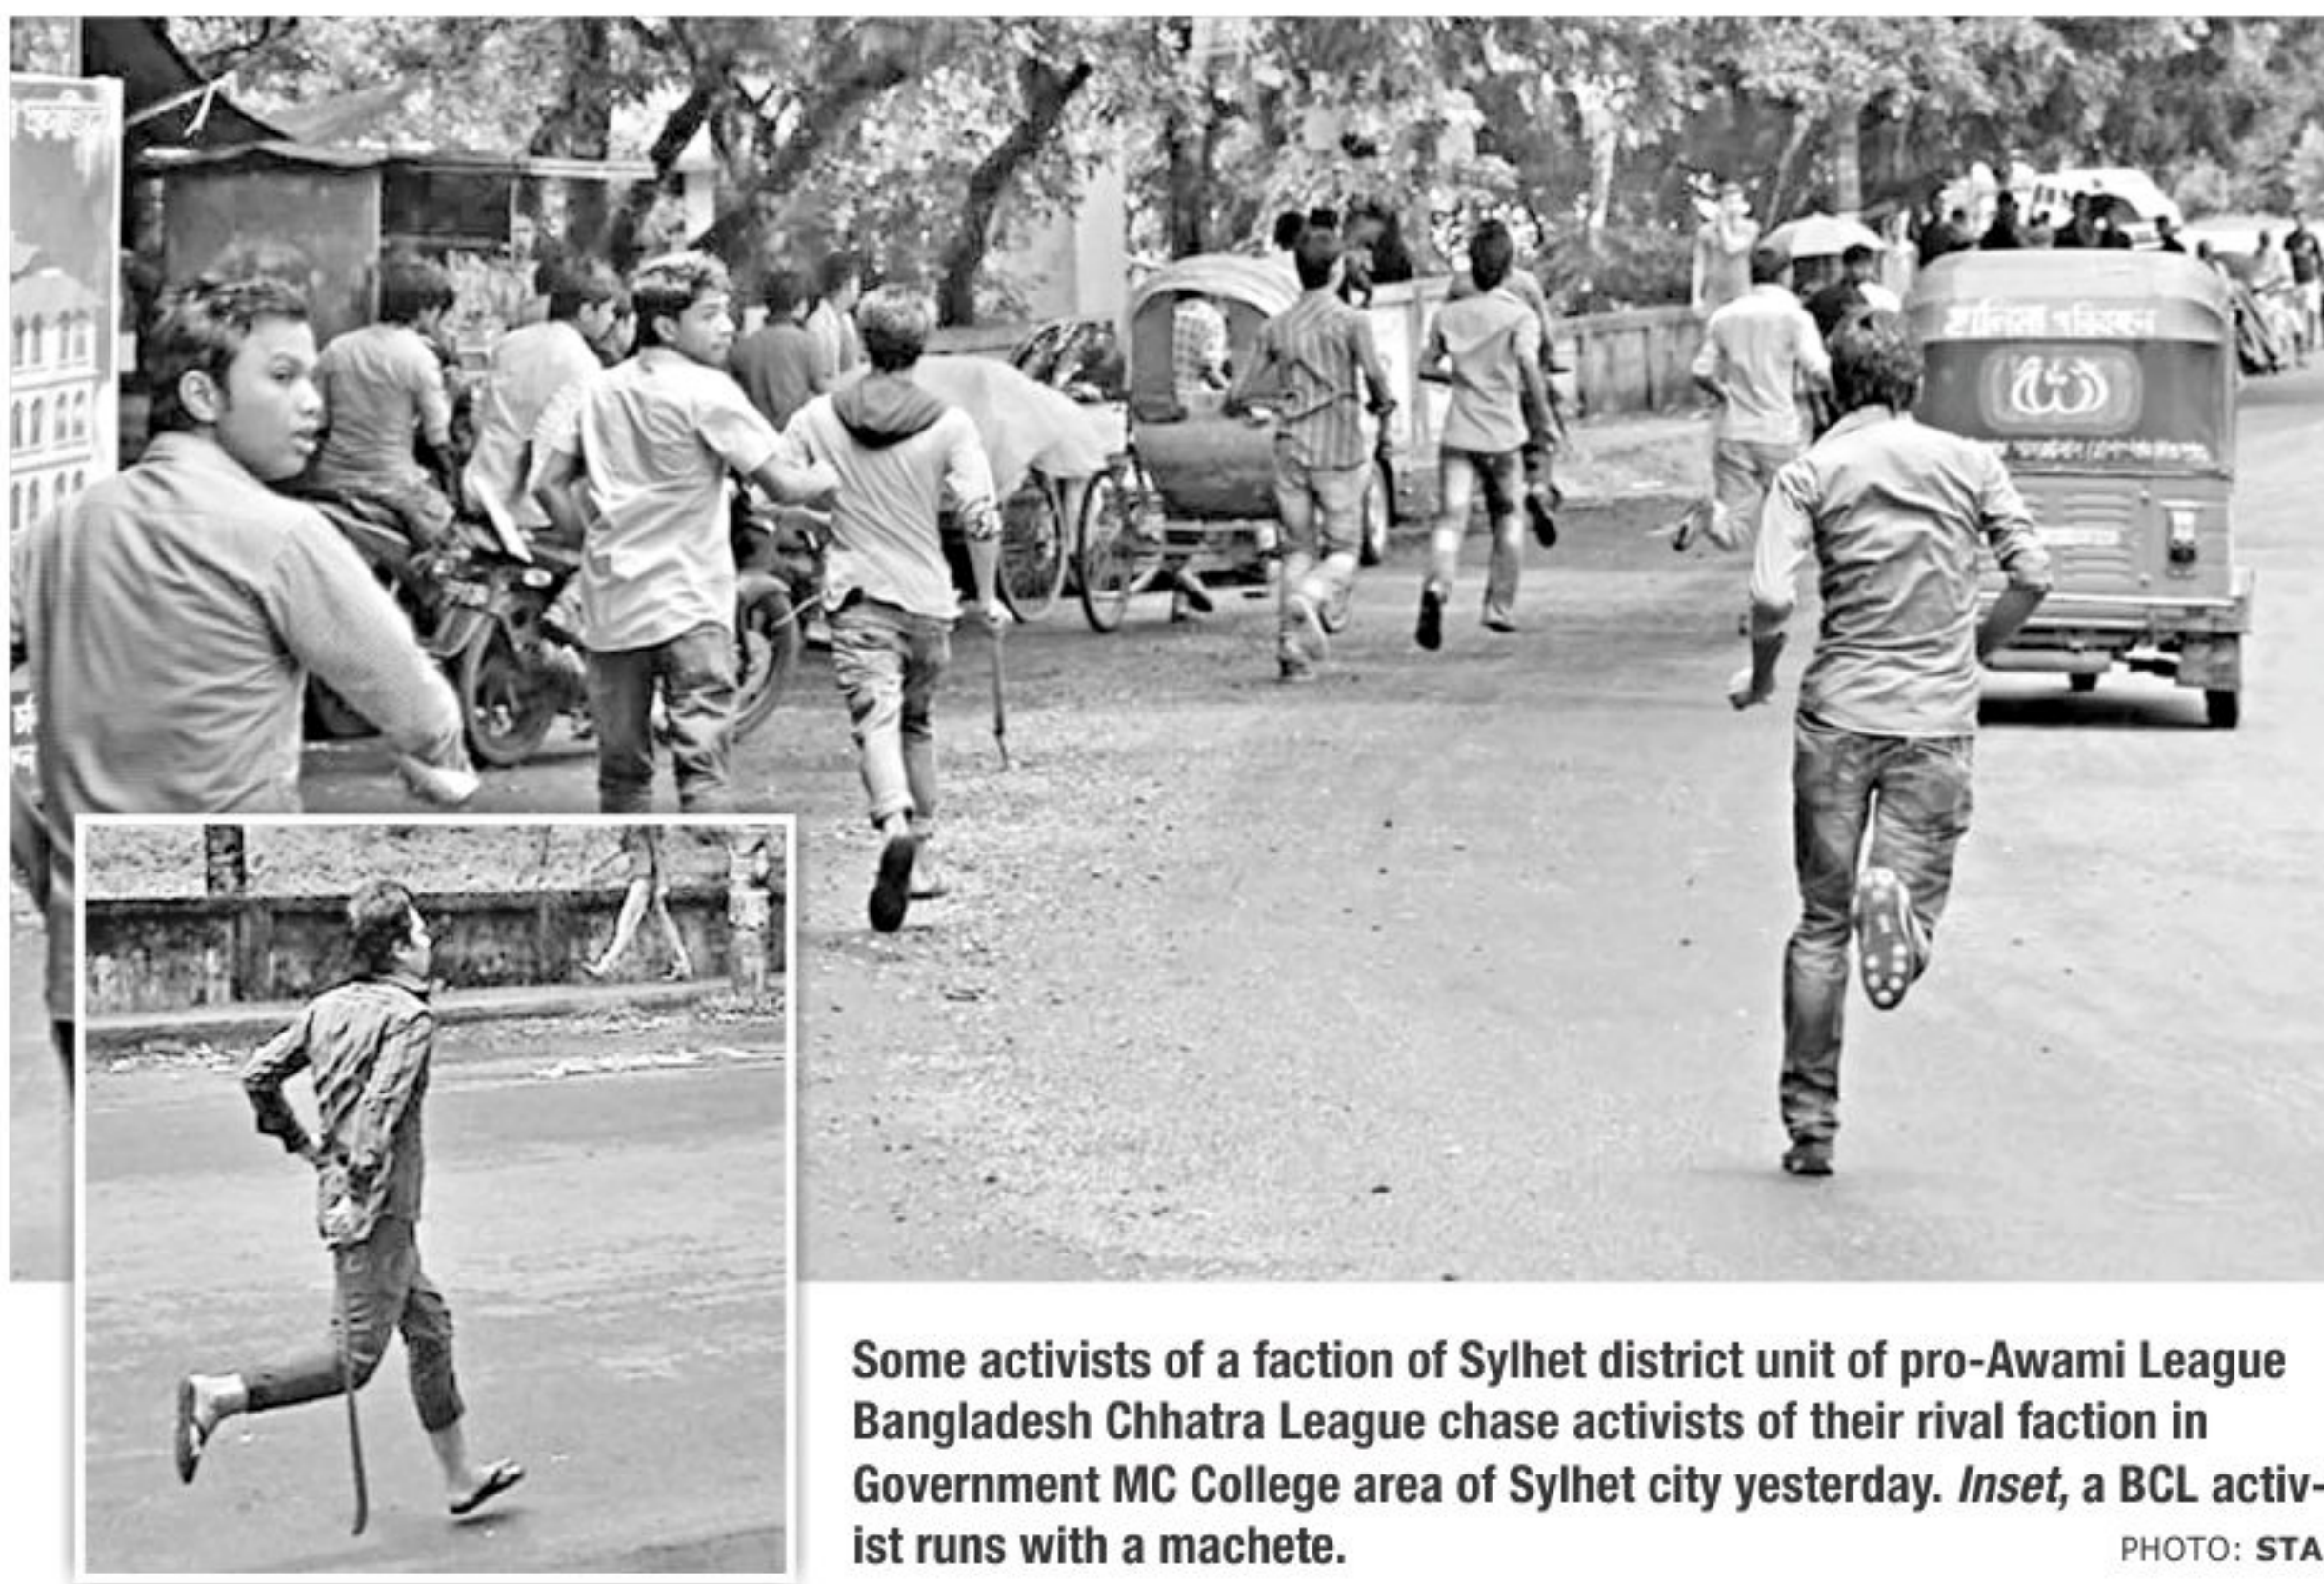

Locals said the clash created panic among the people in the area.

Ikramul Kabir, Sylhet bureau chief of private television channel Somoy TV, alleged that the BCL activists belonging to the faction led by Hiron Mahmud attacked the television channel's reporter Abdul Ahad and videographer Naoshad when they were covering the incident.

The attackers also vandalised their camera, he said.

Despite several attempts over cellphone, both Hiron and Pankaj could not be contacted for their comments.

Shahporan Police Station Officer-in-Charge Liakat Ali said they went to the spot and brought the situation under control.

Some activists of a faction of Sylhet district unit of pro-Awami League Bangladesh Chhatra League chase activists of their rival faction in Government MC College area of Sylhet city yesterday. Inset, a BCL activist runs with a machete.

BBC Sanglap participants urge dialogue to end political crisis

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Discussants at BBC Bangladesh Sanglap (27th episode) in the port city's Institution of Engineers, Bangladesh, Chittagong Chapter on Saturday urged the government and the opposition to hold dialogues and end the prevailing political crisis.

The prime minister's offer for dialogue was still open but the opposition leader was issuing ultimatums, said Environment and Forests Minister Hasan Mahmud, adding that the opposition was killing people by enforcing hartals.

BNP Vice-Chairman M Morshed Khan said people were hoping that politics of confrontation would end through dialogues and processes to pave the way for it was slowing down.

Prof Dr ANM Munir Ahmed Chowdhury of Chittagong University and former Bangladesh Mahila Parishad president Nurjahan Khan also spoke.

Unicef lauds Bangladesh's Mahasen preparedness

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Though cyclone Mahasen reached Bangladesh's coastline on May 16 weaker than anticipated, preparedness of the government and humanitarian partners saved countless lives, said Unicef Representative in Bangladesh Pascal Villeneuve.

"While unfortunately there has been a loss of life, the government demonstrated its commitment to disaster risk reduction. Everyone took the threat extremely seriously and made sure the right measures were in place," he said.

Bangladesh is regarded as a global leader in disaster risk reduction since adopting a series of preparedness measures. An estimated one million people were evacuated from 13 coastal districts in the 24-hour period prior to Mahasen's arrival, says a press release.

Girls need new thoughts to continue women's gains

Says Nahid

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Education Minister Nurul Islam Nahid yesterday said Bangladeshi women have been successful in many areas, and the girls of the younger generation need new thoughts, strength and verve to continue the success.

He urged the girls to be patriotic and humane in leading the country.

The minister was addressing members and officials of Bangladesh Girl Guides Association (BGGA) after laying the foundation stone of a 10-storey building of the association at New Bailey Road in the capital.

Terming BGGA an effective platform for preparing girls to be future leaders, Nahid said the association can also play a significant role in empowering women.

Rashed Khan Menon, chairman of the education ministry's parliamentary standing committee, hoped that the young generation, through their talents, skills, humanity and dynamism, will take the country to a new height in future.

BGGA's top level members spoke at the function which was chaired by Syeda Rehana Imam, BGGA national commissioner.
