Two boys to be grilled for killing another

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday granted two days for interrogating each of the two schoolboys arrested for killing another boy Mahfuz on Sunday at Satarkul in the capital's Badda.

The arrestees are Rafigul Islam, 12, and Shakil, 11. The court sent them to Tongi's Juvenile Correction Centre.

The victim, 12-year-old Tonmoy Ahmed Tomal alias Mahfuz, used to work in a restaurant.

Mahfuz's mother filed a murder case with Badda Police Station on Saturday against several people, including the two. Inspector Kamrul Faruque of the police station said they sought five days for interrogation. Locals caught the two with bloodstains on their clothes while they were trying to escape from Balur Math where Mahfuz was

3 Hefajat leaders sent on remand

COURT CORRESPONDENT

Three leaders of Hefajat-e Islam, who were arrested at Mirpur in the capital Sunday night in connection with the May 5 violence in the city, were each placed on a 4-day remand yesterday.

The arrestees are Emran Majhari, khatib of Lalbagh Shahi Mosque, Abul Basar, convener of Hefajat Kafrul thana unit, and Mizanur Rahman, its joint convener. They were placed on remand in two separate cases -- one over the murder of Sub-Inspector Md Shahjahan in Motijheel and the other for violence on May 5. Masudur Rahman, deputy commissioner of DMP (media), said a team of Detective Branch (South) of police arrested Emran Majhari and Mizanur at Mirpur 13 and Bashar at Mirpur 14. "The arrestees are influential leaders of Hefajat and they played key roles in the violence by giving directives and guidelines," said Jahangir Alam Matubbor, deputy commissioner of DB (south).

HIV INFECTED PEOPLE Media can dispel ostracism Workshop told

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The mass media must play a crucial role in dispelling violence, social stigma and discrimination against HIV infected people, said development partners and NGO workers at a workshop yesterday.

Journalists should maintain the utmost discretion when publishing stories on HIV infected people, they said, adding that insensitive reporting on HIV infected people can actually ruin the lives of many people.

"Publishing names and identities of the infected in a negative manner can often make them ostracised. In some cases, infected people were evicted from their homes after their identities were published in newspapers," said Dr Munir Ahmed, social mobilisation adviser at UNAIDS.

The workshop was organised by Network of People Living with HIV/AIDS, daily Bhorer Kagoj, Sex Workers Network and UNAIDS at Hotel Sonargaon in the capital.

Journalists of both print and electronic media discussed the prospects of reporting on HIV to raise aware ness and remove the stigma.

RANA PLAZA COLLAPSE

Many victims yet to get help

Two labour unions say

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Leaders of two labour unions yesterday alleged that numerous victims of the Savar Rana Plaza building collapse were yet to get compensation, arrears, medical facilities and other forms of assistance.

Though different media have been broadcasting that a huge amount of monetary assistance was being distributed among the victim garment workers and their families, numerous victims were still to receive any form of assistance, they said.

The lack of management and supervision are the reasons behind this absence of help for the victims, stated Garment Sramik Trade Union Kendra, and Rana Plaza Garment Sramik Union in separate statements. Several victims were released from hospitals after being informed that they would get further help and medication, which they are still to be provided, they said. The leaders urged the government to publish on the web names of victims who were enlisted to be provided assistance so as record for workers. Rana Plaza Garment Sramik Union was formed yesterday, aimed at, what they said, stopping corruption centring the distribution of compensation and other forms of assistance among the victims.
