2 ministers reject Amnesty report

UNB, Dhaka

Two state ministers yesterday dismissed Amnesty International's annual report on Bangladesh's human rights situation as "error-ridden and lopsided".

The rights organisation's 2012 report released Wednesday says 30 extrajudicial killings and 10 forced disappearances took place in Bangladesh last year. It also says more than 20 Buddhist temples and monasteries, one Hindu temple and scores of Buddhist homes and shops were torched during a communal attack. Talking to reporters at Comilla Circuit House, State Minister for Law Quamrul Islam termed the report "one-sided, confusing and unacceptable". "Deaths in clashes with police or the law enforcers cannot be called extrajudicial killings," he said. The report cites that state security forces were involved in torture and ill-treatment, while women continued to fall victim to various forms of violence. Besides, the government failed to protect indigenous communities from attacks by Bangalee settlers, it adds. Quamrul claimed that the Amnesty International had "intentionally" been depicting the country's human rights situation as worse for the last few years, especially since the present government assumed power.

Talking to the news agency by phone, State Minister for Home Affairs Shamsul Hoque Tuku said the Amnesty report was not based on proper information.

Bangladesh wins UN award for disaster risk reduction success

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh has won the prestigious UN-Sasakawa Award 2013 jointly with Brazil for successes in reducing disaster risks at community level and championing disaster risk reduction advocacy at global level.

The National Alliance for Risk Reduction and Response Initiative (NARRI), an alliance of 10 international NGOs, led by ActionAid Bangladesh, won the award for Bangladesh for its outstanding collaborative achievement in reducing the impacts of natural disasters in its working area.

Ruling alliance backs Kamran in SCC polls

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

The ruling Awami League-led 14-party alliance in Sylhet yesterday officially declared to back Badar Uddin Ahmed Kamran, contesting for the mayor post in the upcoming Sylhet City Corporation poll, and formed a committee to conduct electoral campaigns.

Badar Uddin is Awami League's (AL) Sylhet city unit president and the outgoing mayor. Five more persons -- four BNP and one Jamaat-e-Islami leaders and one businessman -- are contesting for the post in the election, scheduled for June 15.

The declaration came at a meeting the alliance organised in the Ibrahim Smriti Sangsad office in Sylhet city's Subhanighat area. Meanwhile, the BNP-led 18-party alliance is yet to back one of the four leaders. The four are BNP city Vice-President Nasim Hossain, Central Committee Member Ariful Haque Chowdhury and city

General Secretary Abdul Quaiyum Jalali; and Swechhasebak Dal Central Committee Vice-President Shamsuzzaman. The four are in the capital to meet BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia to decide whom the alliance would back, said local BNP leaders, who presume that Ariful Haque would be chosen.

evacuated after cracks found A CORRESPONDENT, Gazipur

Building

People were evacuated from a six-storey building in Konabari of Gazipur yesterday after cracks were found on the fourth floor of the building. All businesses inside the building have been closed for two days. A team of engineers from Buet will investigate the building today and take further decision. The building housed a sweater factory, a branch of UCB bank and a Hamdard retail shop.

M Nasir Uddin, the owner of the building, is a leader of BGMEA.
