STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The communications ministry yesterday cancelled the holidays of all field-level engineers and officials of Roads and Highways Department for the next three months ahead of the rainy season and Eid-ul-Fitr.

They were asked to be available on call so that they could be engaged in repairing roads and highways across the country whenever required.

Communications Minister Obaidul Quader announced the decision at a press briefing after an emergency meeting with the ministry officials in Bangladesh Secretariat.

"Potholes or cracks on any road will be repaired immediately," Quader said, adding that mobile teams will remain active on highways till Eid-ul-Fitr.

Officials and engineers will be deployed for urgent repairs on roads and highways to ensure smooth communication during the rainy season and the upcoming eid, the minister said, adding that a total of 19 monitoring teams have been formed to oversee the maintenance work.

A committee will be formed soon to ensure road safety.

TAX EVASION CASES Court orders Jamuna Group chairman to appear before it on June 27

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday ordered Jamuna Group Chairman Nurul Islam Babul and two others to appear before it on June 27 in connection with seven cases filed for dodging Tk 45.31 crore in income tax.

The two others are Babul's wife Salma Islam and their son Shamim Islam.

Earlier in the day, the court accepted the charges against the trio after recording statements of three deputy tax commissioners of the National Board of Revenue (NBR).

On May 19, the deputy tax commissioners -- Ataul Haque, Zahurul Islam and Dipak Kumar Chakraborty -- filed the cases with the Senior Special Judge's Court of Dhaka.

On May 21, the trio got one-month anticipatory bail from the High Court.

In their complaints, the NBR officials alleged that the accused as a chairman and managing directors of Jamuna Group had evaded Tk 45.31,28,880 in income tax from fiscal years 2007-08 to 2011-12.

The complainants also said the accused did not submit their wealth statements of Tk 155,19,14,230 in their tax returns and had provided false information about their incomes and expenditures.
