Prof Moshahida Sultana of Dhaka University explained that the power plant would bring the country little benefit and destroy the natural barrier, the Sundarbans, of the coastal region against natural disasters.

Engineer Kollol Mostofa alleged that "land grabbing and eviction of Rampal's residents" had begun to make way for the project while there has been no proper environmental impact assessment.

Despite experts' concerns over the project's negative impacts, the government had signed the agreement with India, he added.

PROTEST OVER DIPLOMA COURSE AT DU

Three hurt in 'BCL attack'

Garment Sramik Trade Union Kendra brings out a procession at Paltan in the capital yesterday demanding Tk 8,000 as the minimum monthly wage for garment workers

DU CORRESPONDENT

At least three left-leaning students were injured in an attack allegedly by some music department students and BCL activists of Dhaka University yesterday after the former protested introduction of a diploma course in the department.

and Eid bonuses equivalent to the wage.

The injured Bangladesh Chhatra Union Dhaka city unit President GM Zilani Shuvo, Bangladesh Chhatra Front DU unit Official Secretary Sushmita Roy Supti and Bangladesh Students' Union activist Farhan Habib received treatment at Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Yesterday's scheduled admission test, a viva, for the one-year diploma course was postponed against the backdrop of the protest, the department Chairperson Shahnaz Nasrin Ila told The Daily Star.

Shahnaz denied the involvement of the department's students while Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) DU unit President Mehedi Hasan Mollah of BCL activists. The protesters, numbering around 60, demonstrated before the department, stating that the diploma's introduction was a process to "commercialise DU". When the viva started around 10:00am, they locked up the room where the viva was being held, said witnesses. The postponement came following a meeting among the chairperson, proctor, arts faculty dean and two left-leaning student leaders.

The attack, with brick bats and iron rods, on the protesters occurred before the Dhaka University Central Students' Union building. The protesters then retaliated. The BCL activists fled when the proctor arrived, said witnesses.
