Gazipur polls fair

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Says network of 29 NGOs
Election Working Group (EWG), a network of 29 non-government organisations, yesterday said the Gazipur City Corporation election was held quite peacefully and fairly except some sporadic incidents related to violations of the election code and irregularities in the procedural system.
EWG has identified some flaws, including allegations of conducting campaigns and bringing out small processions, on the election day, among others.
The voters' turnout was 60 percent in the election, it said in a statement.
The network also expressed satisfaction over the law and order situation, calling the election environment "generally peaceful".
EWG, however, placed some recommendations, including appropriate selection of polling stations and booths, increasing voters' awareness about the voting process, and ensuring comprehensive training to polling personnel.

DMP seeks public help for maintaining law, order

UNB, Dhaka

Commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police (DMP) Benazir Ahmed yesterday urged all to come forward to help the police improve the country's law and order situation especially during the Muslim holy month of Ramadan.
He also advised the businessmen to inform police and avail themselves of the law enforcers' help prior to making any large transactions or while carrying a large amount of money to avert untoward incidents.
The DMP chief said this while addressing a discussion at the Dhaka Chamber of Commerce and Industry (DCCI).
The DMP commissioner also laid emphasis on installation of CCTV camera in business establishments for better security.
Benazir Ahmed sought cooperation from all to manage traffic congestions and felt the necessity for more community police.
Chairman of Anwar Group of Industries Alhaj Anwar Hossain spoke on the occasion as the chief guest. DCCI directors also spoke at the programme held with its acting president Nesar Maksud Khan in the chair.
