voicebox

"Now the government says they are going to take it over. They will split it into 19 pieces. My God! How dare they say that? What kind of government is it?"

PROF MUHAMMAD YUNUS

Nobel Laureate and founder of Grameen Bank coming heavily on Grameen Bank Commission's recommendations to change the structure of the bank.

"We have identified and investigated five outbreaks and found that they are suffering from mass psychogenic illness."

PROF MAHMUDUR RAHMAN

IEDCR Director
Staring a workshop that large numbers of garment workers fell ill due to mass psychogenic illness, rather than from consuming 'poisonous' food or water.

"The Awami League should learn from mistakes to avoid a debacle in the next election as time is running out very fast."

OBAIDUL QUADER

Awami League Presidium Member
stating that the AL needs to do some serious soul searching to get back on track before the general elections.

"Such disastrous results were waiting for us."

NASIR UDDIN GEORGE

Former organizing secretary of district Chhatra League talking about the election result of Gazipur City Corporation.

"People have defeated the government by 5-0 goals in the city corporation elections. We'll be able to defeat it by more goals if we can maintain our unity."

KHALEDA ZIA

Chairperson of the Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) talking about the maiden polls of Gazipur City Corporation.

"I came here to pray to Ram Lalla. I wish we will soon build a grand temple for Lord Ram here and restore Lord Ram to his rightful place."

AMIT SHAH

Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) general secretary and Uttar Pradesh in-charge raking up the issue of Ram Mandir and saying that the party