

DEMAND FOR CARETAKER GOVT Take steps before dissolution of JS

BNP Parliamentary Party urges govt
STAFF CORRESPONDENT

BNP Parliamentary Party yesterday urged the government to take measures to hold the next general election under a non-party government before the current parliament is dissolved in October.

After being whitewashed in the five city corporation elections, the government has two options, compromise or conflict, said BNP lawmaker Moudud Ahmed, while speaking at a press conference organised by the BNPPP at the Jatiya Sangsad Media Centre.

"If the government chooses the path of conflict, we will force it through tougher movement to hold the election under a neutral government," Moudud said. "The government will have to face dire consequences in that case."

The conference was organised to give the opposition party's evaluation of the just concluded budget session of parliament.

Moudud claimed that the budget session had totally failed to meet the people's expectations. He said the opposition lawmakers had raised many issues in parliament including the appointment of Justice AHM Shamsuddin Choudhury Manik whom the House termed a violator of the constitution, and finance minister's harsh remarks on Grameen Bank and its founder Prof Muhammad Yunus in parliament.

Instead of giving reply to those queries, Moudud said, the treasury bench lawmakers, even some ministers, had attacked their top leaders including late president Ziaur Rahman, BNP chief Khaleda Zia, and the party's senior Vice-chairman Tarique Rahman using abusive languages.

He said a consensus between the opposition and the government was the only way to resolve the ongoing political crisis. The BNP led 18-party opposition alliance would not participate in the polls under the incumbent government, he added.

Recent rain has left the road from Hotapara bus stop in Gazipur to Nuhash Palli in a muddy condition. The eight-kilometre road has been in a sorry state for long, causing sufferings to visitors of Nuhash Palli. The photo was taken yesterday.

Road to Nuhash Palli in need of repair

ABU BAKAR SIDDIQUE AKAND, Gazipur

Nuhash Palli, where eminent writer Humayun Ahmed is buried, is only eight kilometres away from Hotapara bus stop in Gazipur, but the extremely poor condition of the road causes immense sufferings to admirers of the writer when they visit his grave.

Hundreds of well-wishers and admirers of Humayun Ahmed, also a noted playwright, director and filmmaker, suffered a lot when they visited his grave on the writer's first death anniversary on Friday.

Six kilometres of the road with potholes scattered all over is especially in a dire need of repair works. The situation has only worsened with recent rainfall in the area.

"We have asked the authorities countless times to repair the road but to no avail," said Md Manju Sarker, chairman of Pirujali Union Parishad of Gazipur.

Md Masud Mia of Uttara in the capital, who visited Humayun Ahmed's grave on Friday, said, "It was really difficult to go Humayun Ahmed's grave. The road was muddy and full of potholes. The situation has not changed since the writer's death; the road was in a bad condition one year ago and it still is in a bad condition."

Iqbal Hossain, a rickshaw-puller of Hotapara area, told this correspondent that the road has been in this condition for the last three years.

"The spokes in my rickshaw broke many times due to the potholes on the road," he added.

Md Shajahan, a medicine trader of Mirzapur bazar of the area, said, "It is not only during Humayun Ahmed's birth or death anniversary that people visit Nuhash Palli. Visitors come all year round, and so the authorities should immediately take an initiative to fix the road."

Nurul Islam, deputy commissioner of Gazipur, said the road is unfit for communication.

"We have already undertaken projects to repair the road," he added.

Six miscreants arrested in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Police yesterday arrested six miscreants, including a gang leader of robbers, at different places in Chittagong city.

Md Firoj, an accused in at least five robbery cases, and his cohort Shahadat Hossain Liton, were arrested at a shop in Muradpur and later police recovered a USA-made pistol and three bullets from Firoj's house.

Meanwhile, Bayezid Police arrested a "top mugger" of infamous "Hamja Group" Md Hossain alias Burma Hossain, an accused in two cases, at Arefin Nagar.

In Ashkar Dighir Par, Kotwali police arrested three alleged muggers when they were trying to escape from Dampara on two CNG-run auto-rickshaws after snatching a woman's bag.

The arrestees are Md Shahjahan, Md Mostafa and Md Shahjahan alias Saju. Saju sustained a bullet injury as police fired on the group during a chase. A case was filed.
