

BCS PRELIMINARY REVISED RESULTS Dropped adivasis want restoration

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Indigenous candidates yesterday demanded that the Public Service Commission (PSC) include all the adivasi applicants who came out successful in the 34th BCS preliminary test but were dropped from the list of the revised results.

The excluded indigenous candidates made the demand at a human chain in front of the capital's Jatiya Press Club.

The PSC dropped at least 280 candidates, mostly adivasis, who were on the first list, said Albericus Khalko, a victim. "The PSC has intentionally dropped the adivasi candidates from the first list as part of a conspiracy," he said.

Had the PSC considered the qualifying mark to exclude the candidates from the revised list, many others would have also been dropped, Albericus said, asking, "So, why only indigenous candidates? He said they had confirmed that at least 137 adivasis were dropped from the second list."

Earlier, PSC Chairman AT Ahmedul Huq Choudhury and Exam Controller (Cadre) AYM Nesar Uddin told the media that the new list retained all successful candidates from the first list and added the new ones to the revised list, said Binoy Toppo, another victim.

If the PSC chairman's claim is true, how come the successful adivasi applicants were excluded, asked Binoy, demanding an explanation from the commission.

On July 8, the PSC published the preliminary test results based on the quota system, with 12,033 candidates qualifying for the written test. It triggered widespread protests among the unsuccessful candidates who said the application of the quota system in the preliminary phase had deprived them.

On July 14, the commission published the reviewed results, with a list of 46,250 successful candidates, almost four times the previous number.

Two days later, July 16, the excluded adivasi applicants submitted a memorandum to the PSC chief, the senior secretary to the public administration ministry, and the Chittagong Hill Tracts ministry to consider their demand.

In Bangladesh Civil Service (BCS), 56 percent of the total posts are reserved as quota, of which five percent are allotted to indigenous candidates.

Parbatya Chattagram Pahari Chhatra Parishad, Dhaka city unit, and Bangladesh Adivasi Chhatra Sangram Parishad, a body of indigenous students, joined the human chain.

Indigenous candidates, who passed the 34th BCS preliminary test but were dropped from the list of the revised results, form a human chain in front of the capital's Jatiya Press Club yesterday demanding their inclusion in the new list, which was released six days after the first one.

LOCKING OF CUJA OFFICE BCL forms investigation committee

CU CORRESPONDENT

The central committee of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) yesterday formed a three-member committee to investigate into the ongoing conflict between its Chittagong University unit and CU Journalists' Association (Cuja).

The conflict between the two organisations led BCL central committee to suspend four activists of its CU unit, which prompted 67 BCL, CU unit leaders and activists to resign in protest.

Md Sirajuddoula, proctor of CU, said the BCL team met him. The team also plans to meet Cuja leaders.

On Monday, BCL central committee suspended four activists of its CU unit for their involvement in locking the office of Cuja, following which 67 of its activists resigned.

On Saturday, Cuja filed a written complaint to CU's proctorial body against a faction of the unit for locking its office on the campus.

Cuja alleged that some BCL activists locked their office protesting news reports published in dailies regarding a clash between locals and the organisation on Friday.

However, BCL claimed the reports were false and also denied locking the Cuja's office.

DU SHAMSUNNAHAR HALL ATTACK Perpetrators yet to be punished

DU CORRESPONDENT

A group of police and some pro-BNP JCD leaders, who stormed Shamsunnahar Hall and assaulted some of the resident students at the female dormitory of Dhaka University eleven years ago, are yet to be punished.

On July 23 midnight in 2002, police dragged the students from their beds and assaulted them for their protest against illegal stay of some female Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD) leaders. Over female 50 students were injured in the incident.

Students' organisations, including Bangladesh Chhatra League, Bangladesh Chhatra Union and Samajtantrik Chhatra Front, yesterday staged demonstrations on the campus demanding a proper investigation and exemplary punishment for the culprits.

Next elections must be under non-party govt

Reiterates Khaleda

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Opposition leader Khaleda Zia yesterday reiterated that the next general polls must be held under a non-party government, neither under Awami League nor incumbent Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

She said this at an iftar party organised by Bangladesh Sammilita Peshajibi Parishad, a pro-BNP professional body, at LD Bhaban of Parliament Members' Club.

The BNP chairperson claimed that the cabinet had decided that Hasina would head the election-time interim government. "But we will not accept this decision anymore," she added.

"The government knows it well that the country's people will dump them with hatred if the polls are held under a neutral government. Therefore, the administration is desperate to hold the elections under them (ruling AL)," Khaleda said.

Bangladeshi worker deported from Malaysia

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A Bangladeshi worker, who had migrated with 197 others to Malaysia to work in the plantation sector in last April, was deported home after two months yesterday.

Mohammad Abdul Kader, 30, a resident of Singair upazila in Manikganj, was back home as Malaysian company Sam Darby sacked him.

"An official of the company informed me yesterday that I was unfit in medical and I have to return to Bangladesh tomorrow," Kader told The Daily Star yesterday over the phone. He reached Dhaka yesterday.

Bangladesh High Commission in Kuala Lumpur, Counsellor Mantu Kumar Biswas said, "We will get the details about him (Kader) soon."
