A Big Letdown?

Faced with a barrage of criticism over labour rights, this month the government has amended the country's labour law. But experts and labour leaders think the law might raise issues that it was supposed to solve. the Star takes a look at the law that experts and labour leaders think, is a big let down.

The Scapegoat

Awami League chief Shiekh Hasina should also be held responsible for the party's humiliating electoral defeat.

42-43 Perspective

In Praise of the Selfies

"You are – who you are when nobody is watching" goes the old adage and the reinvented quote. But in this day and age, we can seldom be ourselves. With the rise of social media, constant photographing, posting and oversharing – no one can be themselves anymore. Someone is always watching.
