TOKI KILLING CASE Liton on 7-day remand

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

A Narayanganj court yesterday placed Yusuf Hossain Liton on a seven-day remand in a case filed over killing Toki in the district.

Judge Zadib Hossain of Narayanganj Chief Judicial Magistrate's Court passed the order after Rapid Action Battalion had produced him before the court seeking a 12-day remand.

Earlier on July 29, police arrested Liton from Chorargop area. Liton, in his statement before a Senior Judicial Magistrate's Court, confessed that Toki was strangled at Simanto's residence and they dumped the body in the river Shitalakhya after taking it in a boat.

Tanvir Mohammad Toki, son of former president of Narayanganj Sangskritik Jote Rafiur Rabbi, was found dead on the bank of the Shitalakhya river on March 8, two days after he had gone missing.

On March 20, Rafiur submitted a written complaint to Narayanganj Superintendent of Police Syed Nurul Islam, accusing seven people including former Awami League lawmaker Shamim Osman and his son Ayon Osman for the murder.

MASUD MURDER CASE Swachhasebak Dal leader held in N'ganj

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

Police arrested Riad Md Chowdhury, joint convener of pro-BNP Swachhasebak Dal Narayanganj district unit, from his Lalpur residence in Fatullah in Jubo League leader Masud murder case yesterday.

Fatullah Model police said Mithu, an accused in the case, confessed before a court that Riad was involved in the killing. Riad is accused in several cases, police added.

Masud was beaten and hacked to death in Bottola area in December 2001. Masud's mother Rahima Begum filed the case in 2012.

VANDALISM CASE HC extends Fakhrul's bail for one year

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday extended for one year its earlier order that granted bail to BNP acting secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir in a case centring violence during a road blockade on December 9, 2012.

Kalabagan police filed the case against several opposition leaders and activists on charges of vandalising vehicles and preventing police from discharging duties during the blockade by the BNP-led opposition alliance.

Fakhrul was shown arrested in this case on January 16 and the HC granted him bail for six months on February 4.

Yesterday, the HC bench of Justice Borhanuddin and Justice Kashifa Hossain extended the order of bail following a petition filed by the BNP acting secretary general seeking the extension.

Fakhrul's lawyer Sagir Hossain Leon told The Daily Star that the one year tenure for extension of bail will be counted from August 3, when the HC's earlier six-month period of bail had expired.
