

Lack of proper planning in the relief works make the lives of ethnic people more difficult.

involved with the killing. But we cannot divulge more since the investigation is still going on."

The Osman story is directly linked with Khash land believes Major Shihabuddin Shoaib. Osman lives in a government-owned Khash land. For the last few years he is having problems with his neighbour, "From our investigation we found that on the night of August 29 he was attacked by the Bengalis and we informed the Police. We hope they will take action against it."

The indigenous people believe that Kamal is a part of the drama that was staged mainly to grab the cultivable and liveable lands from the ethnic people. On condition of anonymity a close associate of Kamal sayes that it was when some miscreants demanded extortion money from him, he made a plan to get ri9d of them.

However allegations by indigenous people found that to make the case more
