

Death anniversary

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Today is the 11th death anniversary of poet and writer Abul Khair Muslehuddin. Abul Khair Muslehuddin Foundation will arrange qurankhwani and a doa mahfil in his village Fenua, says a press release.

Doa mahfil

CITY DESK

A doa mahfil for late Faizul Kabir (Gelman), will be held tomorrow after Maghrib prayers at House-18, Road-7C, Sector-3, in the capital's Uttara. Faizul was the son of late Fazlul Kabir of Ghorashal Miabari.

Adilur and Elan were charged under Information and Communication Technology (ICT) Act, 2006 and the Penal Code. In the probe report, Elan was shown as fugitive. Adilur, now at Kashimpur jail in Gazipur, was arrested on August 10. If found guilty, they might face up to 14 years in jail or Tk 1 crore fine under the Act and seven years' jail term under the Penal Code. Earlier Adilur was denied bail twice.

However, city dwellers carried out their daily activities defying the hartal. Almost all businesses and offices were open. In Dinajpur, a policeman was injured as Jamaat-Shibir men hurled cocktail targeting police near Joypurhat Central Bus Terminal. The injured policeman was Md Sahinur Rahman, 34, a constable of Joypurhat Sadar Police Station. He is receiving treatment in a local hospital. Pickets also burnt three vehicles at Kalai upazila of Joypurhat during the hartal. In Khulna, Jamaat-Shibir activists exploded three crude bombs and barricaded Rupsha bypass road near Khanjahan Ali Bridge area with burnt tyres and tree logs. In Barisal, Jamaat-Shibir activists torched three buses of the city service parked at the C and B Colony Garage at 4:45am. Pro-hartal activists also damaged a covered-van. Police arrested three alleged Jamaat-Shibir activists from a hyacinth-bush in a nearby ditch, said Shakhwat Hossain, officer-in-charge of Kotwali Police Station. In Sylhet, Jamaat-Shibir men vandalised two police vehicles in Sylhet city's Subidbazar and Baluchar areas. Earlier, police during raids before dawn nabbed seven alleged Shibir men in different student messes in the city areas. In Kushtia, at least five Jamaat-Shibir activists were injured in a clash with police at Bhadalia in sada upazila on Kushtia-Khulna highway. According to BSS, Islami Chhatra Shibir activists in Rajshahi hurled bombs targeting a vehicle of the Border Guard Bangladesh at 5:30am.

collected from a crime scene, and a "Convicted Offender Index", DNA profiles of convicted criminals. NFDPL National Technical Adviser Prof Sharif Akhteruzzaman said the database would help police tackle crimes by linking crimes and identify suspects in the long run. He opined that the database could also incorporate DNA profiles of unidentified bodies so that a match is possible with missing persons even decades later. As per the act, the database team will also be able to exchange information

Case hearing

In the petition, defence lawyer told the court that one of their clients Helena Pasha, Adflame director, could not appear before it due to illness while another Mizanur Rahman, its manager, due to hartal. Moreover, the accused must be present in the court during the hearing of arguments. So, the lawyer prayed for an adjournment of the hearing, the lawyer added. During yesterday's hearing, Helena and Mizanur, accused in the case and now on bail, were absent. One of the directors of the donation had been increased to Tk 5 lakh from Tk 2 lakh for treatment of the army personnel abroad. The prime minister said the government had decided in principle to extend the period of service of the army personnel from soldier to major by two years, while an approval had been given for elevating the status of the post of JCO to class I and that of sergeant to class II. She said her government had asked the land ministry to allocate 9,000 acres of land at Char Kerring to Bangladesh Army to use for training purposes, while the handover process of Char Jahajjiya was underway. Apart from this, the process is going on to hand over 657.17 acres of land in Ramu and 997 acres of land in Ruma for construction of full-fledged cantonments, she added.

demanded releasing the fund by this month and the prime minister's intervention. Selim said Nahid took names of three educational institutions from each lawmaker for inclusion in the MPO list, and a proposal has already been approved by the Executive Committee of National Economic Council (Ecne). Nahid replied that they wanted to bring new and legally operated educational institutions under the MPO scheme but the finance came from the finance ministry. The number of schools, madrasas, colleges and technical institutions not getting MPO facilities is 11,624, informed Nahid. Pvt universities

In another reply, he said there were 3,000 vacant posts of teachers at the government colleges, and they were pressing the Public Service Commission for quick recruitments. Nahid blamed the five percent drop in pass rate in this year's Higher Secondary Certificate examinations on political violence. He also said the government was planning to form a separate pay scale for all teachers.
