

Road crashes kill three

CITY DESK

Three people were killed in road accidents in Dhaka and Chittagong yesterday.

Our staff correspondent reports, a boy died as a human hauler hit him at Mirhazirbagh in Jatrabari of the capital around 11:00am yesterday.

The victim, Abdur Rahman, 8, son of Abdur Motaleb, was a class I student of a local madrasa.

He was declared dead at Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

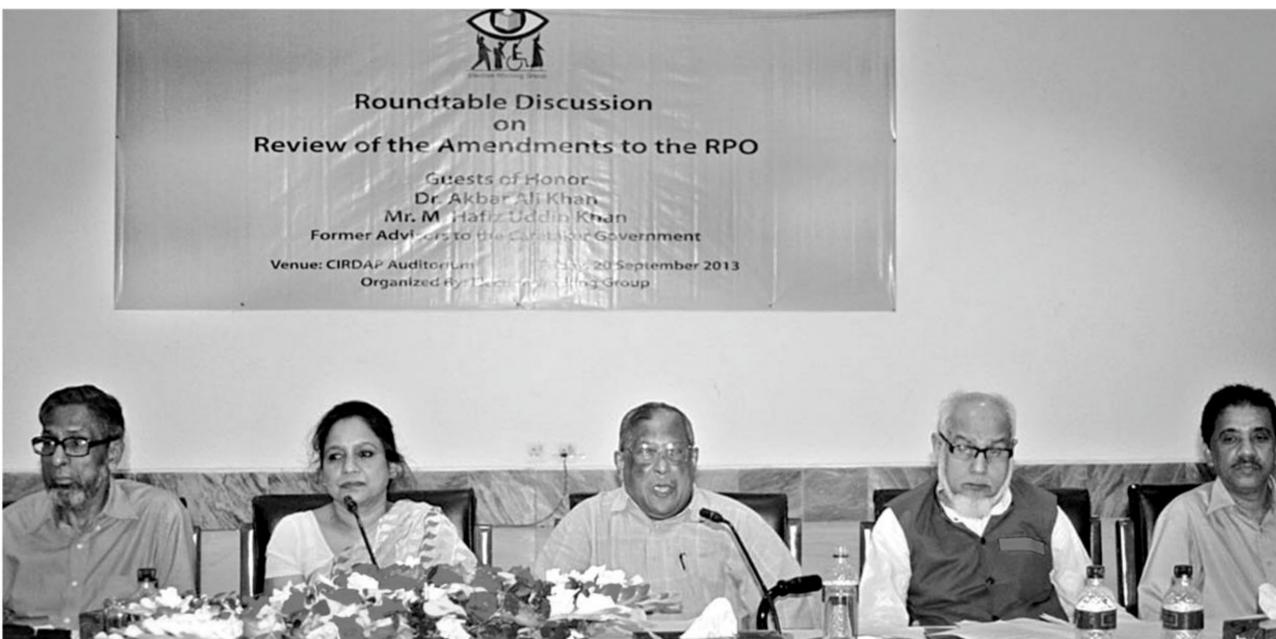

In another incident, a pickup van ran over Rosy, 50, while she was crossing the road at Rupnagar Beribandh in the capital yesterday morning, leaving her dead.

Our staff correspondent from Chittagong adds, a bicycle rider was killed as a bus ran him over on Kuaish Bypass Road in Ananya Residential Area in the port city yesterday morning.

The deceased was Shafiqul Islam, 32, son of Shamsul Alam, of Chalitatali area in the city.

Bayezid police said Shafiqul was pronounced dead at Chittagong Medical College Hospital.

Locals detained the bus and handed over its helper Tawhidul Islam Abu to police, he said, adding that the driver managed to flee.

Dr Akbar Ali Khan, former adviser to a caretaker government, centre, addresses a discussion on "Review of the Amendments to the RPO" in the capital's Cirdap auditorium yesterday.

"The king of Saudi Arabia has allocated Muslim Brotherhood of Egypt and Jamaat-e-Islami 50 billion pounds to strengthen their global network with a focus on South Asia."

Imran H Sarker, convener of Gonojagoron Mancha, which seeks the death penalty for all war criminals, demanding immediate arrest of those who have attacked their co-campaigners recently.

Expressing his determination, Bangladesh Chhatra Moitri president Bappaditya Basu said, "We must not go back home until the war criminals are hanged and Jamaat is banned."

Readymade garment factory worker Kulsum Begum, hailing from Savar, said, "As a helper I receive a monthly wage of only Tk 3,000 with which I have to pay house rent and conveyance and purchase food. This is unbearable for me."

The parishad President Aysha Khanam said the lowest monthly wage for a worker should be at least Tk 6,000 to Tk 7,000.

She said the parishad handed over a list of demands for women workers' wellbeing to the prime minister and the authorities concerned and hoped that those would be implemented soon.

Among others, the parishad General Secretary Maleka Banu also spoke at the event.

Media's role to stop violence against women stressed

CITY DESK

Mass media can play a vital role to create awareness among people to stop violence against women, said speakers in a colloquium organised by Watchdog Bangladesh, an NGO.

They stressed family values and religious education to reduce such heinous acts. Rights activist Nuruddin Ahmed, Abdul Malek, principal of Nayabazar Degree College, Enamul Haq, headmaster of Kalatia High School, and Aman Ullah, headmaster of Bhawal High School, also spoke at the event moderated by Md Liaquat Ali, principal of Kalatia Degree College and chaired by Prof Sadek Ali. Begum Bedora Ali, teacher of the Kalatia college, presented keynote.

the probe committee's failure and stated that the violence was pre-planned.

"Without the role of an influential group, it is impossible for such an incident to occur," he said.

Barrister Jyotirmoy Barua, who filed a writ petition challenging the report, argued that the ministry's probe did not explain the attack's motive.

Following the writ petition, the government formed a judicial probe committee which submitted its report, yet to be made public, to the Supreme Court registrar last May.

The judicial report blamed failure of the local administrations and intelligence and law enforcement agencies for the attacks.

One of the editors, Prof Rehnuna Ahmed, chaired the discussion while New Age Editor Nurul Kabir among others also spoke.

Prof M Kaykobad of Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology hoped that the students would be able to turn human resource, which was the country's potential wealth, into assets through their merit and by acquiring skills.

Mahfuz Anam, editor and publisher of The Daily Star, advised the students to give priority on four matters -- the country, love for the country, education and building up of oneself, which was a prerequisite to build up one's future.

No one's future is settled until the country is developed, for which affection for the motherland is essential, he said.

He said development was not possible without education, knowledge and creativity. "Now-a-days the resourcefulness of a country measures on the magnitude of the countrymen's knowledge and skill."

Following a lottery among those who achieved GPA 5 in all subjects, 10 were awarded medals while colleges with the highest number of outstanding results were presented crests.

Green University Board of Trustees Chairman Mohammed Abdullah Al Mamun and Vice-Chancellor Prof Golam Samadani Fakir also addressed the programme.
