

Polytechnic student stabbed to death in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A polytechnic student was stabbed to death allegedly by his former fiancé's boyfriend at Chawkbazar area of Chittagong yesterday.

The deceased, Towfiqul Islam, 26, was a fifth semester student of EEE at Shamoli Ideal Polytechnic Institute at Muradpur. He was the only son of Shamsul Islam of Patiya. Jahed, a friend of the victim, said Towfiqul had gone to Chittagong College area to meet his former fiancé, Urmi, a student of the college. The two were involved in a relationship for four years but broke up a year back, he added.

At about 1:30pm yesterday, Towfiqul called his friends over phone and begged them to save him as Urmi's new boyfriend had attacked him when he went to meet Urmi.

Towfiqul was rushed to Chittagong Medical College Hospital, with three stab injuries in his hip area, where he succumbed to his injuries. A murder case was filed.

"The present crisis can be solved through talks. But BNP is on the street, which means it has an ill intention," he said.

"The government has kept its door open for discussions, but the BNP is always spoiling the chances of dialogue by putting opaque terms and conditions."

The minister urged BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia to leave the company of "Razakars, Tetul huzur (Hefajat-e Islam chief Shah Ahmed Shafi), and militants".

DBBL awards

fire began, he woke up with a start because of the heat.

"My house was on the ground floor. When I got out, I saw two little girls, ages 7 and 4, come running down from the first floor. We wrapped quilts around us and ran out."

Meanwhile, many residents, who had fled their homes for the fire, came back only to find their houses looted, said locals.

When one Sabina Begum came back with her two children, she found her house unscathed by the fire but vandalised by looters. "My safe was broken and 6 tolas of gold and several thousand taka were gone," she said.

FIRE AT MOGHBAZAR Another fire broke out on the seventeenth floor of the eighteen-storey Rokeya Tower at the capital's Boro Moghbazar yesterday but did not cause any human casualties.

The fire started around 5:05pm from an electric short circuit and was extinguished fifteen minutes later. FIRE AT BANGSHAL A shoe factory housed on the third and fourth floor of a five-storey building was gutted completely in an hour-long fire on the capital's Bangshal road yesterday.

Three units of fire fighters subdued the blaze, the source unknown, about an hour after it began on the third floor around 11:45am. None was hurt.

industrial purpose, a major reason behind the collapse, said the eminent civil engineer.

Moreover, steel used for the construction was mostly obtained from ship breaking yard scraps and was of poor quality, he told the formal launching of "Beyond Building", a monthly magazine on construction engineering, in the capital's The Daily Star Centre.

He said over 90 percent of the country's buildings were non-engineered constructions where owners let masons go with the construction without prior consultation with engineers or experts.

National University Vice-Chancellor Prof Harun-Or-Rashid, The Daily Star Editor and Publisher Mahfuz Anam and Prof Munaz Ahmed Noor also spoke at the programme.

Shibir man caught while making bomb in capital

2 cops injured, 52 bombs recovered

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

An alleged activist of Islami Chhatra Shibir was arrested while making a bomb in Hazaribagh of the capital yesterday.

Abdul Malek, 25, was making a bomb when the explosive went off severely injuring him, said Kazi Mainul Islam, officer-in-charge of Hazaribagh Police Station.

He was taken to Dhaka Medical College Hospital and later shifted to National Institute of Trauma and Orthopedic Research.

Fifty two hand-made crude bombs were recovered and two police officers were injured during the operation.

Meanwhile, 12 alleged activists of Jamaat-e-Islami and Shibir were arrested with bombs in the capital's Malibagh.

Ten hand-made cocktail bombs and several hundred anti-government leaflets were recovered.
