

Napoli's first in 27 years

RESULTS
Napoli 2 (Balotelli 90+1) Milan 1 (Balotelli 90+1) (Britos 6, Higuain 53)

Napoli's career streak of 21 successive penalties but failed to see his side reclaim top spot Sunday despite a first away league win over Milan in 27 years.

Napoli's 2-1 win was their first Serie A victory over the Rossoneri at the San Siro since a side led by Argentine legend Diego Maradona beat Milan in April 1986.

But despite Rafael Benitez's men dominating Massimiliano Allegri's injury-hit side, the Azzurri failed to hold on to the two-goal lead that would have seen them reclaim top spot after Balotelli reduced the arrears in injury time.

It meant Roma, who scored second-half goals through Federico Balzaretti and Adem Ljajic to secure a 2-0 win over derby rivals Lazio, remain top thanks to superior goal difference.

Napoli, in second, also have 12 points with both sides now owning a two-point cushion on Inter, Fiorentina and Juventus after their respective wins over Sassuolo, Atalanta and Verona.

Napoli started in positive fashion and opened the scoring after just six minutes when Miguel Britos headed home Raul Albiol's headed delivery from Jose Callejon's free kick on the left.

Six minutes later Balotelli saw a well-struck free kick go a metre wide of Reina's goal and Milan's woes continued minutes after the restart when goalkeeper Christian Abbiati failed to hold a rocket from Gonzalo Higuain despite the Argentinian falling to the ground as he struck with his right foot.

Barely 10 minutes later Balotelli was fouled in the area but despite being unbeaten in 21 previous attempts for club and country in his career, he saw his spot-kick effort stopped by Reina.

Milan spurned two chances to reduce the arrears, Reina rushing out to deny Alessandro Matri after Balotelli's cross and then Balotelli seeing his strike under pressure come off the Spanish keeper's crossbar.

Balotelli tested the 'keeper again on 71 minutes with a dipping effort which Reina spectacularly tipped over.

Balotelli finally beat Reina when, in the first minute of injury time, he sent a curling shot from the edge of the area past the Spanish keeper at his far post.

Milan pressed for an equaliser but fell to their second reverse of the campaign and remain 11th, eight points adrift of Roma and Napoli.

To add to their woes Balotelli saw red after the final whistle when he received a second yellow card for dissent.

The player's post-game confrontation with the referee cost him a three-match ban the next day. He'll miss Milan's games against Bologna, Sampdoria and Juventus.

Real Madrid superstar Cristiano Ronaldo struck twice in his side's 4-1 La Liga win over Getafe at the Santiago Bernabeu on Sunday.

Real, Ronaldo roll on

AFP, Madrid

Real Madrid shrugged off a warm-up injury suffered by Gareth Bale to move back to within two points of leaders Barcelona on Sunday thanks to a 4-1 win over Getafe.

Angel Lafita's deflected strike had given the visitors a surprise early lead, but Pepe and a Cristiano Ronaldo penalty put Madrid in front at half-time before Isco and Ronaldo sealed the win in the second-half.

However, it was a frustrating day for Bale, who had been named in the starting line-up, as he was forced to miss what would have been his home debut at the Santiago Bernabeu after injuring his thigh in the warm-up.

Isco was drafted in to take the Welshman's place on the left side of a 4-4-2 formation and, despite the disruption, the hosts should still have been in front within three minutes when Ronaldo was denied by two desperate blocks at close range.

The home side were stunned on six minutes though when referee David Fernandez Borbalan waved play on despite Ronaldo's claims for a foul in midfield and Lafita's effort deflected off Pepe past the hopelessly wrong-footed Diego Lopez.

Madrid levelled in the 19th minute as Miguel Angel Moya could only parry Ronaldo's effort from Angel di Maria's free-kick and Pepe bundled home the rebound.

The hosts then went in front 14 minutes later when Michel was harshly penalised for handling Ronaldo's driven free-kick inside the area and the Portuguese confidently dispatched the resulting spot-kick.

Isco gave Madrid the two-goal advantage they craved when he ran onto Ronaldo's quickly taken free-kick and bent in his fifth goal in six games since joining the club.

And the visitors' misery was completed deep into stoppage time when Ronaldo flicked home Sami Khedira's cross to move level with Mexican Hugo Sanchez as the club's fifth highest goalscorer of all-time on 208 goals.

Valencia handed coach Miroslav Djukic a much needed win as they ended a run of four straight defeats with a 3-1 win over Sevilla thanks to a double from Brazilian Jonas Goncalves and Victor Ruiz's late header.

Villarreal continued their unbeaten start to the season, but fell two points behind Real in fourth as they were held to a 0-0 draw at Celta Vigo.

Martino not bothered

AFP, Madrid

Barcelona coach Gerardo Martino has insisted that he isn't annoyed by questions over the style of play he is trying to impose on his players despite an almost flawless start to the season.

"I am not bothered by the debate," he told a press conference on Monday.

"When a team has bordered on excellence there are always these type of situations, especially when the coach is neither from within the club or Dutch. What interests me is the group of players. They seem solid and calm to me and that makes me relaxed."

The debate over Barca's more direct new style was brought to the fore in their 4-0 win over Rayo Vallecano on Saturday as despite the disparity on the scoreboard, Rayo had more possession than the visitors.

It was the first time in over five years that the Catalans had not had more of the ball.

Rains abandon both games

STAR DESK

Rains in Ahmedabad washed out both games on the third day of the Champions League T20. Lions won the toss and elected to bowl against Perth Scorchers, but the game could not go any further due to constant rainfall.

The second game, which was supposed to take place between the Otago Volts and Mumbai Indians was called off 90 minutes after that as the ground was deemed unplayable.

The four teams were given two points each.

AC Milan forwards Mario Balotelli (L) gets quite a hostile reaction from rival Napoli players after he has just missed a penalty which eventually proved costly for the hosts at the San Siro in Milan on Sunday.

Thiago out sine die

AFP, Paris

Paris Saint-Germain will be without their captain Thiago Silva for an undisclosed period after the Brazilian defender limped out of Sunday's clash against Monaco with a thigh injury.

"The MRI test carried out on Thiago Silva confirmed a muscle tear in the left thigh," read a statement on the club website on Monday.

"The length of his absence will be revealed at a later time depending on the evolution of the injury," the statement continued.

The centre-back was substituted in the 16th minute of the 1-1 draw at Parc des Princes which kept Monaco two points clear of PSG and Saint-Etienne.

Suarez set for comeback

AFP, Manchester

English football will welcome back Luis Suarez this week when the trouble-prone Liverpool striker returns from a 10-game suspension against Manchester United in the League Cup third round.

The Uruguay international was banished to the sidelines by the Football Association after biting Chelsea's Branislav Ivanovic in a league game last April, but he served the final game of his ban in Liverpool's 1-0 loss at home to Southampton on Saturday.

The shock defeat ended Liverpool's unbeaten start to the season and saw them concede top spot in the Premier League, but goalkeeper Simon Mignolet says that with Suarez back on board, the team will respond in the correct manner at United on Wednesday.

"We've got another game on Wednesday, when we can put things right straight away. I think it's a perfect scenario to get back to it," the Belgian told the Liverpool website.

"Luis Suarez is coming back, which can maybe give us a lift. So we've got positives to look forward to."

Suarez is certain to receive a hostile reception at Old Trafford due to his feud with United left-back Patrice Evra, which saw him banned for eight games for racial abuse in December 2011.

Istanbul derby abandoned

AFP, Ankara

The high-profile Istanbul derby between bitter rivals Galatasaray and Besiktas was abandoned on Sunday when fans invaded the pitch, throwing seats at tear gas-firing police.

There were just two minutes left when supporters of Besiktas, who were losing 2-1 at the time, clashed with police, the private NTV television reported.

Fighting began after Galatasaray midfielder Felipe Melo had been red-carded in the second minute of injury time.

Fans chanted: "Everywhere is Taksim, everywhere is resistance," referring to a well-known slogan of the Gezi Park protests that rocked Turkey in June.
