

Studies of pry kids suffer as teachers on strike

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Pabna

Classes of primary schools across the country are badly disturbed due to the ongoing teachers' strike.

Demanding second class status for the headmasters of government primary schools and upgrading the pay scale of assistant teachers of the same schools, the teachers observed three hours work abstention on September 15, 16, and 17, four-hour work abstention from September 19 to 22.

To press for the demand, they started full work abstention from September 23 and over 30 thousand out of 37 thousand government primary schools across the country are on strike, said Md. Ohidur Rahman, central organising secretary of Bangladesh Primary Teachers Association (BPTA).

"If the government does not meet the demand by September 30, we will announce tougher agitation programme at the grand rally on the premises of Central Shaheed Minar in the capital on October 1," said Ohidur Rahman, also the president of Pabna dis-

Visiting different primary schools, this correspondent saw children playing in their schools as no classes were held due to the teachers' strike.

"We did not get any class in the school for the last 10 days. And so, we spend our time playing with classmates," said Meem Khatun, a Class IV student of Shibrampur Model Primary School in Pabna.

Urmia Akter, mother of Class III boy Rizvi, said they are worried due to disturbance in academic activities ahead of the upcoming final examinations of children.

Md. Sayed Ul Islam, publicity secretary of Pabna unit of BPTA, said they will conduct extra classes to recover the losses due to the presence disturbance if their long-standing demand is met.

Police arrested three accused in Rajbari Jubo Dal leader Shamsul Alam Bablu murder case at Goalundo in Rajbari district on Friday night.

The arrestees are Arif Biswas, 28, Sariful Islam, 23, and Amirul Islam, 27 of Rajbari Railway Colony.

Setab Ali Khan, sub-Inspector of Khankhanpur police camp in Goalundo upazila, said a police team arrested the three at Goalundo intersection while they were passing the area, riding a motorbike at around 10.30pm.

Police also recovered a pistol and two bullets from Arif's possession. SI Setab said the arrestees are activists of Jatiyatabdi Chhatra Dal (JCD) Rajbari district unit and also accused in Bablu murder case.
