Sunil Kumar Barman and Sheikh Abdul Zabbar, stationmasters of Dinajpur and Parbatipur, said an under-construction bridge across the Chhoto Jamuna river and its diversion tracks were damaged at Manmanthpur village in Parbatipur upazila due to incessant rain since Sunday night till Tuesday afternoon.

They suspended operations of around seven trains on Dinajpur-Thakurgaon-Panchagarh and other routes after the tracks subsided around a foot near the bridge, they added.

Many passengers suffered immensely, as they could not return to their workplaces after celebrating Eid-ul-Azha.

Railway officials said train operations were restored around 3:00pm yesterday.

About 45,000 people of around 80 localities of Babuganj, Bakerganj, and sadar upazilas of Barisal, Galachipa, Baufal, Kalapara and sadar upazilas of Patuakhali, Charfashion upazila of Bhola, Taltali upazila of Barguna, and Nalchhity upazila of Jhalakathi celebrated the Eid on Tuesday.

holy day yesterday.

The occasion marks the conclusion of a three-month seclusion of Buddhist monks inside their monasteries for self-purification and atonement for mankind, and will be followed by the month long Kathin Chibar Dan, when devotees will present monks with robes.

In the three-day celebration, the indigenous Buddhists will offer Pradeep (candle) Puja, organise traditional cultural programmes, perform rituals, hold cake festival, pull chariots in the district town, and release paper lanterns (Fanush) in the evening.

Every year many tourists from home and abroad gather in Bandarban to enjoy the traditional festival celebrated by the district's indigenous people.

Opposition's Oct 25

light to people was very unfortunate for the whole nation.

"Calling upon the party workers to come out with sharp weapons to kill people is very unfortunate, I just cannot understand why people will kill people," said the premier, urging people to resist such heinous acts by the opposition.

In this connection, Hasina mentioned that there had been some recent signs of attempts to create anarchy in the country, including an unwanted incident in a madrasa in Chittagong.

Hasina said little children had gone to the madrasa to attain education on their religion. "Why will these little children be pushed towards the wrong path?" she said.

Responding to a question about the opposition leader's threat to boycott and resist the next election, the prime minister asked why the opposition leader would not participate in the election if she believed in democracy and the voting rights of people.

In this regard, Sheikh Hasina said the elections that took place under the current government were very much peaceful, neutral and acceptable to all, and no one could raise any question about these elections.

"Is she (Khaleda) fearing defeat in the election? Will she boycott the election for that?" Hasina asked.

She also questioned the intention of the opposition leader to go to power in ways other than by participating in the election. "If she boycotts the election what is the other way to go to power!"

The prime minister also said it was the nature of the opposition leader to look for an alternative path to go to power.

In this connection, Hasina said the 1/11 was created by the opposition and the people of the country had suffered a lot at that time.

Talking about the scope of holding dialogues between the ruling and the opposition parties, she said the door for holding talks was always open. "If they put forward any proposal, surely there will be a dialogue," she said.

The prime minister also requested the opposition to come to the parliament, place their adjournment motion and hold the dialogue there.

Earlier, in the morning, the Awami League leaders greeted the prime minister with a bouquet. The premier then started exchanging greetings with people.

People from all strata gathered at Gono Bhaban to exchange Eid greetings with the prime minister. Some of them were seen sharing their problems with the prime minister and the prime minister asked her staff to look into the matters.

She also exchanged greetings with diplomats, judges and civil and military high officials.

adding that the body was sent for an autopsy.

The body of Rifat was found floating on the river in Haluabandha area.

Rifat had been missing since Tuesday, said police, adding that they arrested the victim's cousin, Sajib Al Shams, 18, in this connection.

The body was sent for an autopsy.

In Bogra, police recovered an unidentified dead body from a paddy field in Dhap Sultangonj hat area under Dupchanchia upazila.

The body was sent for an autopsy and a case was filed, said our Bogra correspondent.

On Thursday, police recovered the body of man from under the bridge of a canal in Daudpur-Naoga under Tarail upazila of Kishoreganj.

The deceased was identified as Saiful Islam, 22, a resident of Dargapara village. He used to transport passengers on his motorbike for a living.

Family sources said Saiful went out of the house on Tuesday and did not return.

Police suspect muggers might have killed him for his motorbike and mobile phone. A case was filed, said our Kishoreganj correspondent.

The left lane before SME Bhaban on Panthapath Road, right before the traffic signal at the Saarc fountain, in the capital has been riddled with potholes for the last six months. The photo was taken recently.

parts of an unidentified woman from a field in Dhaka cantonment area Thursday afternoon.

On information, law enforcers recovered the decomposed body parts scattered on the field at Damal Court, said Hosne Ara Begum, officer-in-charge of Bhasantek Police Station.

Police suspect that the woman might have been killed two to three days ago.

The body parts were sent to Dhaka Medical College Hospital morgue.

After a post-mortem carried out yesterday, morgue sources suspect a stab to the head to be the cause of death.

government with participation of all parties," she said, reports BSS.

She also said the government move to hold a one-sided election would not be acceptable both in the country and abroad.

"We have said that we will not participate in a one-sided election," Khaleda said.

She promised to reinstate peace and order in the country if the government accepts her party's demand for reinstating the caretaker government system.

Khaleda exchanged Eid greetings with envoys of different countries from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm. Diplomats of some 42 countries including the high commissioners of India and Pakistan and the ambassador of the Netherlands were present.

Later, Khaleda exchanged Eid greetings with eminent citizens and personalities of the country, including writers and poets.

Former vice-chancellors of Dhaka University Prof Maniruzzaman Miah and Prof Emaz Uddin Ahmed, Prof Sadrul Amin, and president of a faction of Dhaka Union of Journalists poet Abdul Hye Shikdar were present, among others.

BNP standing committee members Dr RA Gani, Dr Khandker Mosharraf Hossain, Barrister Rafiqul Islam Mia, Mirza Abbas, Lt Genz (Retd) Mahbubur Rahman, Gayeshwar Chandra Roy, Brig Gen (Retd) Hannan Shah, MK Anwar and Barrister Jamiruddin Sircar were present, among others, at the function.
