DRU slams attacks on journalists

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka Reporters Unity yesterday slammed attacks on media persons and offices over the last two days.

On Saturday, an Ekattor TV journalist and a videographer were injured in a blast; an unexploded cocktail was located near the offices of Desh TV and Bhorat Kagoj; miscreants also blasted crude bombs in front of ATN Bangla and My TV offices, according to a statement.

Pro-hartal activists hurled brick chips at the vehicles of Channel 24 and ATN News while those were carrying newscasters during hartal hours yesterday, the statement adds. DRU President Shahed Chowdhury and acting general secretary Ilias Hossain demanded exemplary punishment for the culprits.

Mahila Parishad condemns violence unleashed by Jamaat-Shibir

UNB, Dhaka

Bangladesh Mahila Parishad yesterday strongly condemned the ongoing violence unleashed by what it said Jamaat-Shibir men across the country under the banner of BNP.

In a statement, the parishad said, "We've observed with deep concern that as soon as the BNP-led 18-party alliance announced 60-hour hartal, leaders, activists and organisers of Jamaat-Shibir launched destructive activities across the country under the banner of the nationalist party."

It urged BNP chief Khaleda Zia to take steps to stop the violence and to take initiatives for a dialogue to resolve the ongoing political standoff.

Ruling, opposition parties defy ban on gatherings in capital

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The ruling and opposition parties yesterday brought out processions in protest and in favour respectively of the 60-hour countrywide shutdown enforced by the BNP-led 18-party alliance, defying a ban on political gatherings in the capital.

Dhaka Metropolitan Police imposed the ban on political meetings, rallies, human chains, demonstrations, sit-ins and processions in the capital from October 20.

Even ministers and opposition lawmakers are defying the ban by attending rallies and processions.

Foreign Minister Dipu Moni spoke at a protest rally organised by Dhaka city (south) unit of Juba League on Bangabandhu Avenue while main opposition lawmakers brought out a procession and chanted slogans against the government at the South Plaza of the parliamentary building.

The ban is still ongoing, but DMP seems to be following the double standard principle as law enforcers are detaining pickets but not interfering in the processions of the ruling parties.

Contacted, a DMP official, preferring anonymity, said police have been vigilant yesterday.

"Pro-hartal activists went berserk and we resisted them but processions of the ruling party and their wings were peaceful, so we did not interfere in those," he said.

Pro-hartal activists brought out processions, vandalised and torched vehicles and exploded cocktails in many places, including Gabtoli, Shanir Akhra and Nabisco, throughout yesterday.

Furniture market, slum gutted in fire in Ctg

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

A furniture market and an adjoining slum were gutted in a fire in Ashkar Dighir Par area of Chittagong yesterday morning.

Md Jasimuddin, deputy assistant director of Fire Service and Civil Defence, told The Daily Star that 12 furniture shops, one stationary shop and 16 shanties of a slum were gutted in the fire.

Witnesses said the three-storied market caught fire at 6:00am and the fire soon spread to the adjoining slum. Fire fighting units from eight fire stations rushed to the spot and doused the flames at around 10:20am, they added.

The fire originated from a short circuit that occurred in one of the furniture shops, said fire service officials.

Md Naser, owner of the New Ayesha Furniture, claimed that the fire originated from an adjoining shop, Madina Furniture.

"Earlier, I warned the owner of the shop (Madina Furniture) to be careful when welding furniture," he said.

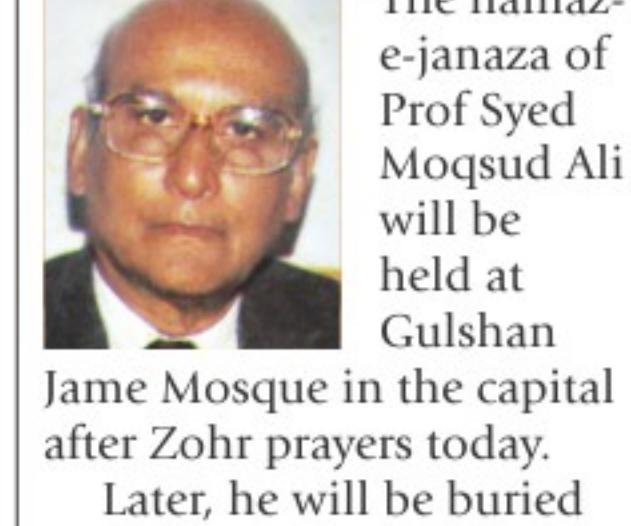

Syed ASM Nuruddin, president of Furniture Owners' Association of the market, claimed the damage was worth Tk 20 crore although fire service initially estimated the damage to be around Tk 90 lakh.

About 30 carpenters per shop have lost jobs, said one of the furniture shop owners.

No casualty was reported.

KHALEDA'S GRAFT CASES

Charge framing hearing again deferred

COURT CORRESPONDENT

A Dhaka court yesterday deferred until December 8 the hearing on charge framing against BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia and eight others in two graft cases.

Judge Md Motahar Hossain of the Special Judge Court-3 passed the order after Khaleda's lawyer Masud Ahmed Talukder submitted two petitions seeking adjournment of the hearing.

In the petitions, Masud said Khaleda could not appear before it as the parliament session was going on and she was busy with national important activities as the opposition chief.

PLANTATION JOBS IN MALAYSIA

100 more to leave today

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

One hundred more Bangladeshi workers will leave Dhaka today to join plantation jobs in Malaysia under state arrangements.

They will leave Hazrat Shahjalal International Airport at 12:40pm by a Malaysian airline, said Zahidul Islam, assistant director (immigration) of Bureau of Manpower, Employment and Training (BMET) yesterday.

On Friday, 77 others left the country for such jobs in Malaysia, he told The Daily Star over phone.

The BMET official said 450 more job seekers are likely to reach Kuala Lumpur by this week for the jobs.

BMET Director General Begum Shamsun Nahar said the regular flight will be running as they have recently received around 1,000 workers' visa from the Malaysian employers.

A total of 520 Bangladeshi will get chance for such jobs in Malaysia. The BMET finalised a list of 20,000 out of over 1.4 million registered job seekers to send Malaysia, the officials said.

CONDENMED FOR WAR CRIMES

SQ Chowdhury likely to file appeal with SC today

ASHUTOSH SARKAR

War crimes convict Salauddin Quader Chowdhury, condemned to die, is likely to file an appeal with the Supreme Court today challenging the convictions.

"We have already prepared the around 1,000-page appeal and it will be submitted tomorrow," his principal counsel, Khandker Mahbub Hossain, told The Daily Star yesterday.

On October 1, the International Crimes Tribunal-1 found the 64-year-old BNP lawmaker guilty on nine of 23 charges of crimes against humanity and genocide committed during the 1971 Liberation War.

As per International Crimes (Tribunals) Act 1973, appeals against verdicts can be made in 30 days from the judgement delivery.

Citing from the appeal, Khandker said the death sentence was based on hearsay statements of prosecution witnesses, who themselves had not heard of the offences directly from eyewitnesses, and this is not at all acceptable.

Salauddin was given capital punishment on four crimes, three of which took place on April 13 and the remaining on April 17 of 1971, said Khandker.

But Salauddin was in West Pakistan studying at Punjab
