hardworking ....there's a need for imparting education, training and creating opportunities for them, which the present government has been doing. Through this, our youths will be more motivated."

In checking drug addiction, Hasina stressed that family members, teachers and guardians alongside religious leaders and Imams, Muajjins through their preaching would have to play their due role in creating awareness among the youths against this menace.

Noting that a country could prosper and develop if its youths were properly educated and trained, she said the youth forces would have to build the country utilising their talents.

Mentioning that the recent ODI series win against New Zealand has been possible due to the contributions of the country's young cricketers, the prime minister hoped that Bangladesh would also be able to clinch the cricket World Cup some day.

She underscored the need for winning the war against poverty where the youth force would have to play an important role.

Hasina also called upon all, including the youths, to put their all-out efforts for building a Bangladesh free from hunger, poverty, illiteracy and communalism and turn it into a middle-income nation by 2021 when the country would be observing its golden jubilee of independence.

Hasina said whenever her party formed government it gave priority to the development of youths as it believed that the real development of the country was not possible without their proper and effective involvement.

She mentioned that the Department of Youth Development has so far provided training to over 40.46 lakh youths on various trades and about 19.95 lakh of them have become self-reliant alongside creating employment opportunities for others.

Underscoring the need for massive involvement of youths in creating self-employment to build a poverty and hunger-free Digital Bangladesh by 2021, the prime minister asked them to be self-reliant availing themselves of the existing facilities of collateral-free loan up to one lakh.

Later, the prime minister distributed prizes among 15 successful youths who created employment opportunities for themselves and for others.

post-Durga Puja gathering organised by Mohanagar Puja Committee, in the capital's Dhakeshwari National Temple.

Terming the situation a test for democracy, William Hanna, head of the EU delegation to Bangladesh, said the EU was against all political violence and wants to see an election where everybody would be ensured the right to exercise their vote.

Dhaka University Vice-

Chancellor AAMS Arefin Siddique said anti-liberation quarters were trying to destroy communal harmony and they must be faced through unity.

Lawmaker Mostafa Jalal Mo h i u d d i n a n d Mo h a n a g a r Puja Committee President Basudev Dhar and General Secretary Nirmal Kumar Chatterjee also addressed the programme. Later, a cultural programme was organised.

Agitation, talks to go

BNP would respond to any government attempt to hold negotiations but the issue should be over the demand, he said.

He criticised and blamed Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina for her "ill attempts" to destroy democracy by telecasting the recent phone conversation she had with BNP

Chairperson Khaleda Zia.

He urged Hasina to "stop conspiring" and come forward to hold an acceptable dialogue, without which democracy will be weakened.

Modud also warned the Election Commission of public agitation if it did not refrain from taking further initiatives for holding a "staged election".

NARSINGDI MAYOR LOKMAN MURDER

Wife seeks justice

Says most of the perpetrators left out of charge sheet

STAR REPORT

Two years have elapsed since the gruesome murder of Narsingdi municipality mayor Lokman Hossain but most of the perpetrators are still walking scot free as police left them out of the charge sheet, said Lokman's wife yesterday.

"It is a matter of regret that we did not get justice...some of the killers arrested earlier even got bail," added Taj Mahal Begum, Lokman's first wife.

She was addressing a press conference in the capital's Crime Reporters Association marking the killing. Lokman, awarded gold medals twice by the government as the best mayor, was gunned down inside the Narsingdi Awami League office on this day in 2011.

Lokman's brother Kamruzzaman, the present mayor, filed the murder case accusing 14 persons.

However, the case's investigation officer (IO), Mamunur Rashid Mondal, also an inspector of Detective Branch of police, dropped 11 of the names and prepared the charge sheet against 12 people, adding nine new names.

The three names kept afterwards are Abdul Matin Sharkar, former chairman of Narsingdi municipality; his younger brother and Narsingdi city unit Jubo League president Ashraful Sarkar, both of whom are on bail; and one Mobarak Hossain Moba who is absconding.

Execution

Rather, BNP has staged a drama by giving an ultimatum."

"Our invitation to the opposition leader is still valid. You [BNP] may inform us about the time when you want to talk with us," added Hanif.

He, however, insisted that the next national polls will be held under the leadership of Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina.

Chaired by city AL acting president MA Aziz, the meeting was organised to make the November 3 (Jail Killing Day) AL rally at Suhrawardy Udyan successful.

Speaking at the meeting, AL leaders asked its city leaders to take initiatives to gather huge number of people at the November 3 rally. They also asked party men to remain alert about the BNP-Jamaat's violent activities in the name of hartal and blockade in future.

AL leaders Jahangir Kabir Nanak, Qamrul Islam and M o f a z z a l H o s s a i n Chowdhury Maya spoke at the meeting, among others.

AL MP's son held with yaba

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Rajshahi

Police arrested two men, including an Awami League lawmaker's son, on suspicion of drug peddling in Rajshahi city's Aam Chattar area early yesterday.

The arrestees, Mustaq Ahmed Tulu, 27, son of Meraj Uddin Mollah, AL lawmaker from Rajshahi-3 constituency, and Tulu's friend Mamunur Rashid, 26, were held with seven yaba tablets around midnight.

The duo tried to flee after they saw police, who were in the area on information, said Hafizur Rahman, officer-in-charge of Shah Makhdum Police Station.

He said the duo admitted to taking the tablets as samples to buyers in Rajshahi city.

Police produced the duo before the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate's Court seeking a seven-day remand to interrogate them on where the yaba pills are stored, said Hafizur adding that the hearing will be held on Sunday.

The court sent the duo to jail, he said.

He said two years ago, Tulu was arrested while carrying Phensedyl to Dhaka in a truck, but police released him due to the lawmaker's influence.

ILLEGAL APPOINTMENTS

SAU stop paying 10 teachers, staff for filing writ plea

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

The Sylhet Agricultural University (SAU) authorities have stopped giving salary and other benefits to 10 teachers and staff as they filed a writ petition against the university administration seeking suspension of the process of "illegal appointments".

SAU Rafiqul Islam, director of finance and accounts department of the university, on Thursday gave the order to stop paying the 10.

Meanwhile, SAU authorities also issued a show-cause notice asking the 10 to explain why they filed the petition against the university. If they fail to respond in a week, the authorities will make a decision regarding the issue without further consulting the 10, said the notice.

The 10 are Prof Siddiqui Islam, Prof Mohan Miah, Prof ATM MAHbubb E Elahi, associate professors Kazi Mehtaul Islam and Md Ataur Rahman, Assistant Controller Gazi Md zahurul Islam, Public Relations Officer Khosru Md Salah Uddin, Assistant Director Md Neamat Ullah, senior lab attendant Md Foyez Ahmed and MLSS Md Abdul Hamid.

After they filed a writ petition on October 8, the High Court ordered the university to suspend appointments for six months.

However, a vacation bench of the court stayed the order for three weeks on October 13. Accordingly, the authorities appointed 108 officials and teachers on October 22.

Prof Siddiqui claimed the university has been making illegal appointments by hiring people for posts although they do not meet the job criteria.

Contacted, SAU Registrar Badrul Islam Shueb said they issued the show-cause notice as the 10 went to the High Court violating university rules and acted against the university's interest.

There have been numerous allegations of illegal appointments in the university recently. Several complaints have already been lodged with education ministry.
