HARTAL EVE VIOLENCE 2013

1) A crude bomb explodes near a private car in the capital's Uttara on November 3, the day before the BNP-led opposition alliance's 60-hour hartal. Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal activists hurled it before fleeing the scene. 2) A man soaked in blood lies unconscious following a blast in Katabon area. 3) Eakattor TV journalist Zakaria Biplob being treated in United Hospital for wounded legs. He came under a bomb attack in front of his office on October 26 before the opposition's first 60-hour hartal that began the next day. 4) The inside of a burnt bus in Farmgate. 5) A picket hurling a big chunk of concrete at a private car in Bjoynagar area. 6) In Dhaka Medical College Hospital, a mother comforts a human hauler driver burned in a cocktail explosion in Mohammadpur. 7) A scared woman with her school-going daughter strides past a burning car on Jubilee Road in Chittagong city on September 17, the day preceding Jamaat-e-Islami's 48-hour countrywide shutdown. 8) A blazing microbus of ATN News set alight by BNP activists before the party's Nayapaltan office in the capital on April 1, another day preceding a countrywide dawn-to-dusk hartal of the 18-party opposition alliance and Islami Chhatra Shibir. 9) Nearby, another car was torched simultaneously. 10) That day, these two buses were set aflame in Khulna city's Ferryghat Bus Stand. 11) Hawkers try to save their goods as pickets torched this bus in Farmgate of the capital on March 27, the first day of the alliance's 36-hour countrywide shutdown. 12) Pickets hurl brick chips at police, not in picture, after setting alight a poor street vendor's cart in Nayapaltan on March 11, the day before BNP's daylong hartal. 13) An express train burns at Rajshahi Railway Station on March 2, preceding a three-day Jamaat hartal.
