

Drunk AL leader opens fire in Barisal Club

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Barisal

Police early yesterday arrested a local Awami League leader and businessman for arbitrarily opening fire on the staff of Barisal Club in the divisional city on Sunday night.

Shafikul Alam Gulzar, 55, a member of the district AL, was sent to jail after his arrest at Athena, one of the two posh hotels and bars owned by him, said Kotwali police.

"He entered the club around 10:00pm and ordered some drink. As it was taking a while to serve him, he took out his revolver and chased us," said the club's supervisor, Md Idris. "We ran in panic while he fired about four shots. The bullets could hit us," he said.

Police arrived later that night at Barisal Club and took Gulzar, who was drunk, to Athena before arresting him there. Two cases were filed against him--one by Barisal Club for attempted murder, and the other by police for abusing his licensed gun. Gulzar was elected a councillor of Barisal city thrice. He joined the AL after it was voted to power in 2008. Before that, he was treasurer of the district BNP.

demanding execution of the chancellor's directives for organising the VC panel poll.

The confinement, however, was condemned by a group of teachers and Bangladesh Chhatra League activists who brought out a candlelight procession on the campus last evening.

They also urged a stop to the demonstration of the agitating teachers.

Meanwhile, a section of students yesterday continued their protest against allowing MPhil and PhD researchers to contest and cast votes in the JU Central Students Union (Jcsu) election slated for January 2.

However, the first information reports and initial charge sheets give a sense that these are ordinary cases with ordinary people like labourers, truck drivers and owners and staff of two trawlers named as accused, he said.

Even the then Chittagong Metropolitan Police commissioner had, as per the plaintiff's statement as a witness and after the haul, instructed that no case be filed, Kamal added.

The plaintiff, Ahadur Rahman, was the then officer-in-charge of Karnaphuli Police Station.

The arms and ammunition, manufactured in China, were meant to be smuggled to India for ULFA, said Kamal, adding that no ordinary person can dare to smuggle such a huge quantity of arms.

The cases were filed a day after seven truckloads of arms and ammunition were seized at a jetty of Chittagong Urea Fertiliser Ltd in Chittagong city on April 2, 2004. The court will resume proceedings today.

Dhaka int'l book fair starts Dec 12

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Dhaka International Book Fair has been failing to make it a success due to lack of new books, said National Book Centre (NBC) Director Asim Saha yesterday.

The book fair with at least 250 stalls will be held at the Suhrawardy Udyan from December 12 to 22, Asim Saha told reporters at a views-exchange meeting at the centre premises in the capital.

He said publishers mainly published books during Ekushey book fair not during the Dhaka book fair arranged since 1995 by the National Book Centre. As a result, he said readers show little interest to come to the Dhaka book fair.

He said this year publishers will have to publish at least one new book during the Dhaka book fair.

The hotel staff collected the key and opened Helal's room around midnight and discovered the body, but informed police of the matter the next morning, he added.

Quoting hotel staff, police said an hour after Helal booked the room, a man, who Helal introduced as Mozammel, met with him in his room but did not stay.

Police suspect Helal was strangled. The body was sent for an autopsy.

The cause of the fire could not be known immediately.

At Tongabari, another fire broke out at the first floor of a six-storey building of Mondol Group's garment factory about 5:15pm.

At least 15 workers were injured in stampede when they were rushing up towards the exit during the blaze.

Fire fighters with the help of locals brought the flame under control after two hours of their attempt, said a fire service official.

The reason behind the fire and total damages from it could not be known.

Two held with Yaba tablets in capital

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Rapid Action Battalion on Sunday arrested two persons along with 1,600 Yaba tablets worth Tk 18,000 in the capital's Jatrabari and Demra.

The Rab team led by Senior Assistant Superintendent of Police Kudrat, raided Dholpara area in Jatrabari around 3:30pm and held one agreement amidst all the chaos over the election, hoping that the people would miss what was being done.

"Signing deals like the Rampal Power Plant with India and the Tifica with the US proves that the government is ready to go any length to appease India and US, so that they can continue to be in power," said Zonayed Saki.

Coordinator of GBM Saiful Huq said although Sheikh Hasina professed to be pro-liberation, she had actually capitulated to the US, which was against Bangladesh's independence in 1971.

Gonosanghati Andolon, Jatiya Mukti Council, and Jatiya Ganatantrik Ganamancha also held separate rallies to protest the agreement.

HC rejects writ petition

He also urged the court to direct the authorities concerned of the media to stop publishing the contents of the conversation.

The HC passed yesterday's order saying the petitioner has no jurisdiction to move such a petition before it, since he is not an "aggrieved person" in this regard.

No political leaders gave rejoinders to the media to protest recording and publishing the conversation, it said.

The HC bench of Justice Quazi Reza-Ul Hoque and Justice ABM Altaf Hossain passed the order.

On October 26, Hasina phoned Khaleda and invited her to Gono Bhaban, the official residence of the premier, for a dialogue over the polls-time government.

Later, different television and print media published the conversation between the two political leaders.

The organisation's six clubs in the country will hold seminars and discussions, among other programmes, in the 16 days, she said.

More than 300 members of the Bangladesh chapter, along with 30,000 international members, will be involved in the campaign, said Rahman.

Dilruba Ahmed, director of Zonta International, said the organisation works to empower women through ensuring their education, economic and political rights.

In a message for the worldwide campaign, Zonta International President Lynn McKenzie said, "We can't and mustn't ignore the fact: violence against women and girls is still pervasive in all kinds of countries and societies. It's in our back yard. Zonta International has been committed to its prevention and eradication for many years".

ATTACK ON SAVAR FIRE STATION

Two cases filed against RMG workers

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Savar

Two cases were filed against several thousand unnamed workers of AL-Muslim Group early yesterday for attacking Savar Fire Service Station and clashing with law enforcers which left 60 people, including fire fighters and policemen, hurt on Sunday morning.

One of the cases was filed by Station Master Khan Khalilur Rahman while the other by Sub-Inspector Abul Kasem of Savar model police.

On Sunday, the workers also looted valuables from the station and vandalised 12 vehicles following a rumour that two of their female colleagues were forcibly taken to the station over a trifling argument with the station staff, said the station sources and Savar police.

Nomination of Candidates and Election of Civil Society Representatives to the Bangladesh Country Coordinating Mechanism (BCCM)
Deadline: December 10, 2013

On behalf of the Bangladesh Country Coordinating Mechanism (BCCM), UNAIDS Bangladesh is coordinating and overseeing the election process of NGO representatives and Civil Society Members to the Bangladesh Country Coordinating Mechanism (BCCM). The NGO constituency will elect four (4) members and four (4) alternates from the NGO constituency. Kindly send your request with necessary documents to the given address below if you are eligible as per the following criteria. You will also be able to download the detail guideline from the website link below after November 28, 2013.

Country Coordinating Mechanisms: CCMs are partnerships consisting of representatives from both the public and civil society sectors who coordinate the submission of one national proposal on the basis of priority needs. In addition, CCMs are responsible for overseeing the progress of program implementation. The CCM [is] a central pillar of the Global Fund's architecture to ensure country-driven, coordinated, and multi-sectoral processes for leveraging and effecting additional resources to fight AIDS, TB and malaria.

The Bangladesh Country Coordinating Mechanism (BCCM) consists of 27 members, with representation from both the public and private sectors, including government, multilateral or bilateral agencies, non-governmental organizations, academics, private sector, key populations and people living with the diseases (PLWD).

For each grant, the Country Coordinating Mechanism nominates one or more public or private organizations to serve as Principal Recipients. In addition, it is responsible for overseeing the implementation of all Global Fund grants.

NGO Election Process: Step 1: Please register your organization following criteria A (below). Step 2: You will be provided with a voter number if you are eligible. Step 3: Registered voters will be invited to nominate a candidate and or alternate for election of NGO constituency following the criteria B (below). Step 4: Once members of the NGO constituency have nominated persons as candidates for the positions of Member/Alternate (optional: not all constituency members have to nominate), a consolidated list of the eligible nominated candidates and a ballot paper/registration number will be circulated to all registered voters, so they may vote for their preferred candidates for each seat.

A. Criteria for membership of NGO constituency

- Registered with the Bangladesh NGO Affairs Bureau. The organizations must submit a copy of their registration certificates or registration number and date of registration;
- The organizations must have been operational for a minimum of 5 years and having working/implementation experience in the health sector, particularly in HIV/AIDS, TB and/or malaria;
- Programmatic disbursement of at least Tk. 10 lacs annually over the last five years;
- The organizations have a specified geographical service area;
- Proof of annual audit for last three years;
- The organizations have the ability and willingness to coordinate within the NGO sector, including informing other NGOs about CCM decisions and conveying their views to the CCM
- Any organization which has been found to be in breach of Global Fund regulations within the past 5 years is not eligible to become a member of the NGO constituency

B. Criteria for candidate for election of NGO constituency

- Relevant experience and expertise in the health sector;
- Proven track record of active participation in NGO initiatives;
- Access to CSO communication channels;
- Leadership experience;
- Represents NGO constituency/sector and able to report back;
- Willingness to contribute and committed time to CCM activities;
- Represents the interest of their entire constituency, and not those of the individual self or organization;
- Representatives of NGO(s) which have been found to be in breach of Global Fund regulations within the past 5 years are not eligible to become a CCM member
- Global Fund grant recipients are not eligible.
