STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Sylhet

Miscreants hurled several bombs at the houses of two Jatiya Party nominees for the national election in Sylhet yesterday. No casualty was reported.

Shabbir Ahmed, Zakiganj upazila Parishad chairman and the nominee for Sylhet-5 constituency, said about 10 unidentified youths went to meet him at his house in Uposahar area of the city around 11:30am.

As they got to learn from the guard that Shabbir was not home, they hurled some five petrol bombs at the main gate. The gate and the window frame of the guard's room caught fire in the explosion.

On information, fire fighters doused the fire.

Babul Hossain Babul, nominee for Sylhet-1, said some youths wearing helmets hurled six Molotov cocktails at his house in Bateswar area and fled away on their motorbikes. Glasses of several windows shattered due to the explosion.

Law enforcers later visited both the houses. Police are conducting drives to arrest the miscreants.

Woman found dead

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A woman was found dead in the house of her husband's friend at Pashim Baistiki in the capital's Kafrul yesterday.

The deceased, Nazma Akhter, 22, had been living separately from her husband, Azad, for several months following a family feud.

The couple occasionally met in the house of Wasim, friend of Azad, where the body was found, police said.

Police recovered the body from a bed. Azad went into hiding. She might have been strangled by her husband, said Kafrul police.

around 10:00pm on Friday. My truck was already loaded with goods so I had to make the trip," said Milu, with the skin nearly peeled off his face, in a low voice.

"I lost control and both of us jumped out through the window. The truck skidded off the road and plunged into a ditch," Milu said.

He blamed the Awami League-led government for his present state, stating that none of this would have happened if the party had accepted the opposition's demand for a non-party caretaker government.

Milu was brought to the burn unit around 2:00am on Sunday. With the blockade ongoing, his wife and parents could not come from Bogra.

"We are fearful over what happened to him. My two sons and parents-in-law are crying consistently," his wife Laily Akhter told The Daily Star over the phone.

The burn unit received 54 victims of recent hartals and blockades. Of them, 31 are still undergoing treatment while nine passed away, said the unit's Chief Coordinator Dr Samanta Lal Sen.

case against 15 people including the journalists and around 25 unnamed people under the explosive act.

Rtv's Chief News Editor Lutfur Rahman told The Daily Star that they had learned that anti-blockade activists forced Shah Alam to implicate their staff in the case. Police also confiscated their camera, he added.

"They were only doing their duty by taking footage of picketers exploding cocktails. The pro-blockade activists, who blasted the cocktails, ran away soon after the explosion while the anti-blockade activists caught our journalists," said Lutfur.

Terming the arrest as a threat to journalism, Lutfur demanded immediate release of the journalists.

Rescuer turned victim seeks he told The Daily Star recently.

"We found long lengths of cloth, tied them to columns and threw the ends down to other rescuers waiting below. Those were also used as makeshift slides to get victims out," he said.

Caught up in the frenzy, he and others moved into the darkness, deeper into the building, using flashlights on their cellphones. "That was when I saw a woman with her top half covered in debris," said Soheli.

In the dim light, he started pushing the rubble off her, unknowingly removing the support of bigger concrete slabs on top.

The slabs came crashing down, pinning him to the floor and smashing his right kneecap. He regained consciousness in the nearby

Enam Medical College Hospital and underwent surgery at Shaheed Suhrawardy Hospital.

An interneer physiotherapist at the Centre for the Rehabilitation of the Paralysed (CRP) said Kirschner wires (sterilised stainless steel wires) were used to keep the kneecap in one piece.

Soheli can barely stand now. His discharge certificate clearly mentions that he has to live a sedentary life, something he cannot afford to do. He lost his job which requires one to stand for long hours.

"The hospitals were generous enough to treat me completely free of cost," Soheli said.

But Soheli needs to remove the wires around April/May and requires further physiotherapy to regain the strength in his
