

Prof Anwar leaves JU

Prof Ajit Kumar Majumder.
One of the protest leaders, Prof Kamrul Ahsan, said law enforcers told them that the government high-ups had taken an initiative to remove Prof Anwar, and his departure was part of that initiative.

The agitating teachers started a sit-in near the VC's residence on Monday night shortly after he returned from 12 days of sick leave. During this period, the teachers confined two pro-VCs, pressing for an immediate VC panel election to replace Prof Anwar.
Their protests intensified when bombs were exploded near the Jura president's house Wednesday night. Around 9:30pm that night, some 200 teachers and students gathered near the VC's house and asked him to quit in 30 minutes or get "driven out of the campus".

Shortly afterwards, Deputy Commissioner of Dhaka district Sheikh Yousuf Harun, Savar Upazila Nirbahi Officer Kamrul

Ahsan Mollah, and Assistant Superintendent of Police (ASP) of Savar Sheikh Russel arrived at the VC's residence with police reinforcement.

"We are here on the instructions of the PMO and education ministry to take Prof Anwar Hossain to Dhaka, and it doesn't mean that the high-ups are satisfied with him," the DC told the agitators on Wednesday night. "Our arrival is part of a government initiative to resolve the ongoing stalemate on the campus."

As the VC refused to leave that night, the officials left early yesterday before the UNO and the ASP arrived around 12:00pm again and took him out of the campus.

Majority of JU teachers have been demanding Prof Anwar's resignation since February, accusing him of committing irregularities in teachers' recruitment, spoiling teacher-student relations, and misusing university funds. The biochemistry professor of Dhaka University took charge as JU VC on May 20, 2012.

Hold prayers at places

Referring to the country's Liberation War in 1971, he said that besides going to war, people prayed for independence. "As an adolescent, I used to fast."

The campaigner for safe road said at least 23 people were killed in the last six days of opposition's blockade, and the situation was heading towards more violence.

Despite calls from international communities for dialogue, neither of the two major parties has taken effective measures, he lamented. The people are helpless now, he said.

Dhaka South City Corporation workers take a large Awami League campaign banner off a billboard at Shahbagh yesterday. The move came upon instructions of the Election Commission to remove all publicity materials as electioneering is not allowed until there are three weeks left for the voting day. The 10th parliamentary poll is scheduled for January 5.

sent to Papua New Guinea or Nauru," adding that the government's message is crystal clear.

Under a regional arrangement with Papua

New Guinea in August, Australia will send illegal migrants to Papua New Guinea for assessment and if found to be refugees, they would be settled there.

On August 28, Bangladesh foreign ministry informed that Australia had sent five Bangladeshi nationals to Papua New Guinea on August 23 in this connection.

war crimes accused Syed Mohammad Qaisar following a petition of his counsels "seeking time for preparations".

December 15 was fixed for the hearing against Qaisar, a former state minister in military dictator HM Ershad's cabinet. The first deferment was on November 27.

On November 14, the tribunal took into cognisance the 18 charges brought against Qaisar, an alleged Razakar commander and member of Peace Committee in Habiganj, for his "wartime role" in 1971.

Nutrition

"This research initiative helps us understand which kinds of social safety net interventions are most effective in improving the food security and child nutrition in ultra-poor families," said Christa Räder, WFP representative in Bangladesh.

Their preliminary results suggest that people participate in nutrition education programmes, said Dr Akhter Ahmed, lead researcher of the IFPRI team and chief of party of the IFPRI Policy Research and Strategy Support Programme in Bangladesh.

Khoka on remand

Members of Rapid Action Battalion (Rab) and detectives arrested Khoka from a house at Sector-4 in the capital's Uttara on Wednesday.

On November 28, the bus in Shahbagh carrying 19 people was set on fire and Shahbagh police filed the case for instigating and masterminding the arson attack.

So far, three of the victims succumbed to their injuries at Dhaka Medical College Hospital.

Meanwhile, in another case filed for murder, the same court sent Khoka to jail rejecting his bail and remand prayers.

Police filed the case against 15 opposition leaders, including BNP acting secretary general Mirza Fakhrul Islam Alamgir and Khoka, for arson attack on a bus at Malibagh in Dhaka that left a man dead and three injured on November 30.

BNP leaders Mirza Abbas, Salahuddin Ahmed and Barkatullah Bulu are among the others accused.

Police sought a 20-day remand for quizzing Khoka in connection with the two cases.
