They also urged the government to arrange appropriate compensation and cancel the registration of the recruiting agencies that sent the construction workers to Iraq in February and March this year for a monthly salary of $350.

The demands came at a press conference organised by Anirban Survivors Voice, a platform of returnees, with Shikha Shasthya Unnayan Karzakram (Shishuk) at the capital's Jatiya Press Club.

Bombs stashed in 'JCD mess' explode

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

About a dozen crude bombs stashed in an empty students' mess in the capital's East Razabazar went off last night, injuring a woman in an adjacent building five or six feet away.

A group of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal leaders and activists of Tejgaon College reside in the second-floor apartment of a five-storey building, said Deputy Commissioner of Dhaka Metropolitan Police (Tejgaon Division) Biplob Kumar Sarker.

Witnesses said they heard a bang around 8:00pm and after a short while, the apartment was spewing black smoke. When locals rushed in, they found the door locked, they added.

Brother of the injured Fatema Begum, 20, a garment worker, who lives in the second-floor flat, said, "She was walking in the house. Suddenly, there was a loud noise and some shards of glass flew to her head and neck through the window." She was treated in a nearby hospital, he said.

Chhatra Dal activists might have piled up the bombs to use those during anti-government protests, said the police official, adding that they seized some explosives from the scene.
