revealed that the position of public representatives is a profit making tool and a glaring example of how power is abused in amassing wealth.

Terming ACC's role frustrating, he said ACC's indifference indicates the lack of courage and sincerity of its top bosses in investigating corruption.

Time for diversifying have to bring in changes in domestic policies and create adequate infrastructure and congenial environment for investment to advance the benefit of globalisation in the coming years.

improve roads, highways and ports for trade facilitation and ensuring smooth supply chain. We have to build up a modern working condition and infrastructure in the country under the second generation trade policy.

Apart from diversifying export baskets instead of relying on garment items, which fetch up to 80 percent of the total export earnings, Debapriya stressed that within the garment sector, the country would have to concentrate on producing high-value products.

Mohammad Yunus, senior researcher fellow of the Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies (BIDS), said although South Asia was one of the fastest growing economic regions in the world, the intra-regional trade accounted for only 5.8 percent or $11 billion of their total trade against a potential of $40 billion.

Bangladesh also needs to explore opportunities in emerging markets in Southeast Asia and Latin America as well as Malaysia, Russia, India and Turkey, as the country is too much dependent on North America and European Union, which currently together receive three-fourths of the exports, he said.

He said the absence of transport connectivity among Bangladesh, Bhutan, Nepal and India resulted in losses for all countries in terms of opportunity costs, although these countries stood to gain substantially from cooperation in transport services.

The noted economist also said regional cooperation could play a major role in helping Bangladesh diversify its export markets.

He said nowadays the process of producing quality products in line with international standards had become equally crucial like the quality of products.

Wahiduddin Mahmud, a former adviser to a caretaker government, ABM Azizul Islam, another former caretaker government adviser, and Mustafa K Mujeri, director general of BIDS, also spoke.

Zohra Tajuddin played

Soon after the death of Zohra, the senior most president member of the AL, the premier rushed to the hospital. She got emotional while recollecting her memories with Zohra in the party after Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, along with his family, was assassinated in 1975.

Zohra Tajuddin organised and united the party, taking charge as AL convener in 1977. BNP Chairperson Khaleda Zia also paid tribute to Zohra, saying she left noble deeds throughout her political career. "Zohra Tajuddin was fearless and committed to defending the country's independence, sovereignty and democratic rights of the people," she said in a message.

"Her death is a permanent loss not only to the party but also to the whole nation. And I lost someone close to me," Hasina said.

As a Liberation War organiser, Zohra was very significant for the victory of Bangladesh, said BNP acting secretary general Mirza Farkul Islam Alamgir. "She proved herself to be an intellectual and efficient politician throughout her political career."

After her first namaz-e-janaza at Gulshan's Azad mosque, the body was taken to the AL central office on Bangabandhu Avenue in the capital.

Alongside her active participation in politics, she worked with social and charity organisations. She was vice-president of Bangladesh Mahila Parishad

After placing a wreath on her coffin there, the PM stood in solemn silence for some time in honour of Zohra. AL leaders also paid rich tributes to their former colleague, followed by her second namaz-e-janaza there.

Her body was kept in United Hospital's mortuary. She will be buried in Banani graveyard Sunday after arrival of her son Sohel Taj, former state minister for home, in the USA, said family members.

late Abdur Rashid Howlader, inhabitant of a neighbouring village.

Rafiqul had hid inside the residence when the sole two dwellers went to the toilet outside, said Rajapur Police Station Officer-in-Charge Md Nazrul Islam, quoting the woman.

Hearing the daughter's screams, the woman resorted to slitting Rafiqul's throat after initially failing to fend him off, he said, adding that the woman's husband was away working at a Khulna mill.

The locals said the families knew each other. The body was sent to the Jhalakathi Sadar Hospital morgue for autopsy while a murder case was filed accusing the duo.

The number of outposts along the border has been increased while flood lights are being installed, he said, adding that a length of 257.70km out of the total 288.75 km of border roads had been completed while work was in progress in the remaining 31.05km.

"Assam has completed fencing of more than 97 percent which is the highest among all the other states like West Bengal, Meghalaya, Mizoram and Tripura having border with Bangladesh," the chief minister said.

All those who came to Assam and settled before 1971 will be considered as Indians, he said.

BNP-Jamaat tie

The team has been visiting Bangladesh since December 16 and already met Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina and representatives of the BNP, civil society and religious minority leaders.

Shafie, also president of OFWI, said they had travelled to Bangladesh in order to stand with its people against religious extremism in any form.

The people of Bangladesh must reject attempts by religious extremist parties to exert influence over the political process and impose a restrictive view of religion that would make political and civil rights contingent on one's religious identity, he said.

Shafie also said the OFWI was committed to standing with the people and government of Bangladesh in all genuine efforts to continue down the path of freedom and human rights, rather than head down the path of extremism and intolerance.

"The threat of extremism is not only a threat to Bangladesh's minorities, it's a threat to Bangladesh people as a whole," the delegation chief said, mentioning that the nation of Bangladesh is at a crossroads in its history.

One Free World International (OFWI), an international rights body based in Toronto, Canada, focuses on the rights of religious minorities around the world and promotes tolerance, understanding and respect for diverse religious beliefs.

The current political cultural personality Nasir Uddin Yousuff attended yesterday's rally expressing solidarity with the mancha's demands.

In a rally there, the unit Secretary Chandan Das said they would continue with their programmes until all war crimes trial verdicts were implemented and Jamaat was banned.

cultural personality Nasir Uddin Yousuff attended yesterday's rally expressing solidarity with the mancha's demands.

Mancha, Chittagong, demanding the same, brought out a procession carrying the national flag from the city's Cheragi Pahar intersection around 4:15pm to the New Market intersection, where they burned Pakistan's national flag.

Stating that Pakistan "exports terrorists", Zafar Iqbal asked the country to solve its own problems and to not interfere in Bangladesh's internal matters.

In a rally there, the unit Secretary Chandan Das said they would continue with their programmes until all war crimes trial verdicts were implemented and Jamaat was banned.

Demanding banning Jamaat, Nasir Uddin said Pakistan's stance made it clear that "Jamaat is its wing".

The unit Convener Sharif Chouhan declared holding a rally on Friday.

The mancha also brought out a procession at Dhaka University.
