Razakars yelled 'Yusuf Bhai Zindabad' after killings, torching of houses

Testifies prosecution witness in war crimes trial of AKM Yusuf

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Another prosecution witness yesterday corroborated the May 13, 1971 murders and arson carried out in Ranjitpur village under Bagerhat sadar upazila by Razakar forces, historically known to have been founded by Jamaat-e-Islami leader AKM Yusuf.

The 22nd witness, Jugul Krishna Das of Ranjitpur, who lost his paternal uncle that day, said after killing 50 to 60 people and torching scores of houses, the attackers left chanting "Pakistan Zindabad, Yusuf Bhai Zindabad".

"For the first time, today I revealed Yusuf's name," said Jugul. When the International Crimes Tribunal (ICT)-2 asked why he had not done so, he replied, "Where should I tell this?"

The 21st witness, Dilip Das, also a freedom fighter, gave his deposition on Sunday,

Tuition cut at private medical colleges demanded

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Doctors for Health and Environment, an organisation of left-leaning physicians, yesterday said private medical institutions should improve their education quality instead of charging huge tuition fees.

Most of the private medical colleges fail to attract students due to insufficient faculty members, infrastructure and exorbitant admission fees, said a statement issued by Kazi Rakibul Islam, general secretary of the organisation. Some colleges do not even have adjacent hospitals, it added.

Criticising such colleges, the statement further said some of those are now lobbying to relax the admission test procedure, although the test is essential to seek out the deserving students.

Body of criminal found in Rangpur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Rangpur

The bullet-hit body of a listed criminal of Rangpur was found under a bridge in Nisbetganj area on Rangpur-Badarganj road in the city yesterday.

The deceased was Shakil Ahmed alias Tokai Shakil. He was wanted in 18 cases for murder, robbery and mugging.

Koheli Begum, Shakil's wife, claimed Rab and DB police had arrested Shakil at Rangpur Rail Station on January 14, and he had been missing since then.

Abdur Razzak, superintendent of police of Rangpur, and Lt Commander Md Motaher Hossain, deputy director of Rab-13, denied the allegation.

Razzak said the body had two bullet wounds in the head. The body was sent for an autopsy.

ALLEGATIONS AGAINST TWO JESSORE MPs

EC likely to decide on their candidacy after Jan 27

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The Election Commission is expected to hear on January 27 the allegations against two Jessore lawmakers-elect of violating the electoral code of conducts before the January 5 vote.

"We will take the final decision regarding their candidature after the hearing," Election Commissioner Shah Nawaz told reporters at his office yesterday.

Awami League leaders Sheikh Afil Uddin and Monirul Islam were elected members of parliament (MPs) from Jessore-1 and Jessore-2 constituencies respectively.

Afil unlawfully instructed the party men in Jhikargachha upazila of Jessore on December 30 to cast ballots again and again for Monirul Islam on January 5.

"One hundred boys will always be in the queue. One will enter the booth and then stand at the end of the line again," he said.

Afil's campaign speech was taped and published in different newspapers. Following that, an electoral inquiry committee of that constituency investigated the incident and found it true.

On January 8, the EC issued show cause notices to the two MPs to explain why their
