voicebox

"You [Khaleda] tried to wage a movement, but failed. You tried to foil the election, but failed."

SHEIKH HASINA
Prime Minister of Bangladesh said in her speech at Satkhira terming Khaleda Zia a failed person

"This government came to power promising democracy and a return to the rule of law, but instead has become increasingly authoritarian and intolerant."

BRAD ADAMS
Asia director at HRW
while releasing its World Report 2014

"No diplomat in the world has power to make political changeover in Bangladesh."

SYED ASHRAFUL ISLAM
Awami League General Secretary
referring to the envoy of an influenti country

"Some people are saying that I am an anarchist... Yes, I am an anarchist. Today, I will create anarchy for Shinde."

ARVIND KEJRIWAL
Delhi Chief Minister
during the sit-in demonstration demanding police reforms

"Neither document mentioned the question of trade. So we are not considering any change to the GSP at the moment."

WILLIAM HANNA
EU Ambassador
ruling out the possibility of cancelling trade preferences for Bangladesh following the country's January 5 parliamentary polls

"They are going to sit in parliament without the opposition ... And some clowns, who are not even elected by the people, will be there."

KHALEDA ZIA
BNP Chairperson
said in a rally at Suhrawardi Uddyan

"We have to go on with our fight because what we are doing is for our country."

SUTHEP THAUGSUBAN
Leader of Anti Government Protest in Thailand told reporters before embarking on the march in Bangkok