Body of missing girl found in Gazipur

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gazipur

The body of a class VIII student was found floating in a pond in Beraider Chala village under Sreepur upazila of Gazipur yesterday, six days after she had gone missing.
The victim, Masuma Akter Moni, was a student of Abed Ali Girls High School of the area.
The body was sent for an autopsy.
Amir Hossain, officer-in-charge of Sreepur Police Station, said Moni did not come home from school on January 22. The next day her father, Md Matlab Hossain, filed a general diary, he added.
Bilkis Akter, the victim's mother, claimed on January 24 she received a phone call from one Nayem of Shirir Chala village where he threatened to harm their daughter if they did not stop investigating the issue.
Following the call, the victim's family filed a case accusing Nayem and his friend and neighbour Selim. Afterwards, Nayem and his family went into hiding.

MANUFACTURING, MARKETING ADULTERATED MEDICINES

Why govt should not be directed to form monitoring cell

HC issues rule

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday issued a rule upon the government to explain in two weeks why it should not be directed to form a monitoring cell to stop the manufacturing and marketing of adulterated drugs.
In the rule, the government was also asked why it should not be directed to make a price list of medicines manufactured by different companies, and to publish the list of drugs, which are supplied to different government hospitals, in the daily newspapers.

Secretaries to the ministries of law and health, director general of drug administration and director general of the Directorate General of Health Services have been made respondents to the rule.

The rule was made following a writ petition filed by Supreme Court lawyer JR Khan Rabin on December 17 last year.
Citing newspaper reports, Rabin said in the petition that adulterated drugs, which are harmful to the human health, are being sold rampantly across the country.
There is no control on the drug prices and adulteration of medicines, the SC lawyer said.

People under the banner of "Rana Plaza Garment Workers' Union" bring out a procession on Dhaka-Aricha highway in Savar yesterday demanding that the government launch another recovery operation for skeletal remains in the ruins of nine-storey Rana Plaza that collapsed on last April 24, leaving, as per official figures, 1,135 people dead. They also demanded compensation for the affected families and information about the donations collected and distributed from the premier's fund.
