As Fatah said he could not do that without the formation of a puja committee and the approval of the college managing committee, Sagar broke into fury and damaged several chairs, windows in his office and hurled abuses at some teachers, he added.

Talking to The Daily Star, the principal alleged that Sagar's group had been involved in extorting money from admission seekers and other misdeeds at the college in the last few years. The BCL leader could not be reached for comments.

Bangladesh sets eyes

A meeting of the coordination committee, headed by Cultural Minister Asaduzzaman Noor and comprising the Armed Forces Division (AFD), was held at AFD in Dhaka Cantonment yesterday.

Earlier, Bangladesh set a Guinness World Record with the creation of the world's largest human national flag using 27,117 people though an initiative of Robi Axiata Limited and Bangladesh Army.

UPAZILA POLLS

The EC has estimated that it needs over 15,000 polling centres to hold the elections to 215 upazilas to be held in two phases. Around 6,995 centres will be needed for the first phase on February 19 and around 8,145 centres on February 27, said EC officials.

Patient dies for 'wrong treatment in Rajshahi

However, the clinic authorities denied the allegation. Following the death, relatives along with locals ransacked the clinic.

Anwarul Haque Tipu, 45, vice president of Chapainawabganj Bonik Samity, was admitted to Dolphin Clinic Tuesday afternoon with injuries in the right leg which was fractured in an attack by BNP-Jamaat men during a political violence on December 9 last year.

Tipu's wife Sharmin Akhtar filed a case with Boalia Police Station accusing Dr Samiul Uddin Ahmed, one of the owners of the clinic, and three other unnamed doctors.

Tipu, also a member of Awami League's Shibganj upazila unit, died at 9:10pm, minutes after he had been taken to the operation theatre, Officer-in-Charge Ziaur Rahman of the police station told The Daily Star.

His relatives found him dead in the operation theatre after doctors and other staff had fled the clinic, said the OC.

Ziaur Rahman said overdose of pain killers might have led to the patient's death, reports the Prothom Alo.

Talking to The Daily Star over the cellphone, Dr Samiul claimed Tipu died of "a cardiac arrest".

"We tried to save him by artificial respiratory system, but failed," said Dr Samiul.

There is no trained anaesthetist in the clinic and the job is conducted by class VIII graduates, the Bangla daily adds, quoting an official source.

Meanwhile, police detained four staff of the clinic and another owner, Nawsher Ali, following the death of Mohammad Mustakim, 10, son of Shamsuddin of Tanore, allegedly from "wrong treatment" on November 6 last year.

On January 21, a mobile court fined the clinic Tk 95,000 for violating rules and not maintaining a hygienic environment.

land and seed," he observed.

Huge amounts of money under climate change and resilience funds are being spent in an uncoordinated manner for which expected goals cannot be reached, he said.

Kholiquzzaman said almost all of the ministries were spending and distributing the funds through public and private initiatives and the water ministry was the highest spender.

Both men, however, urged the media to present accurate and informative news about climate change and the different government and non-government funds.

SoMaSHTe awarded fellowships on the issue to three journalists – Bangla daily Prothom Alo Bogra correspondent M Jashim Uddin, Channel i Cox's Bazar correspondent Sarwar Azam Manik and the daily Manobkhantha Kurigram correspondent Laily Begum.

Journalist Ajoy Das Gupta and SoMaSHTe directors Mir Masrur Zaman and Mir Shahidul Alam also spoke.

at the capital's Ramna Batamul.

A total of 30,000 students participated in the reading programme in the capital, said Abdullah Abu Sayeed, founder chairman of BSK, at a press conference held at its office in the capital.

The non-profit institution that promotes reading habits among students will later hold similar award giving ceremonies in the cities of Khulna and Chittagong.

A total of 25,000 books were given to the students who were selected as best readers in the three divisional cities, including Dhaka, said the noted litterateur.
