OUR CORRESPONDENT, Bandarban

Bangladesh army in a drive on Sunday destroyed 59 poppy fields in remote Boromodak area of Thanchi upazila of the district.

A joint team of the army, Border Guard Bangladesh (BGB) and police conducted the drive in 'unguarded' Panjhiri, Bulu Para, and Laikrejhi areas adjacent to Myanmar border and also inside the Sangu reserve forest of the district.

The team first chopped down the plants on more than 14 acres and later destroyed those by setting ablaze, sources said.

Chittagong Area Commander Major General Sabbir Ahmed, BGB Chittagong Area Commander Brigadier Gen Ahmed, Bandarban Regional Commander Brigadier Gen Md Sayeed Siddiki, Bandarban Hill District Council chairman Kwe Shwe Hla, Deputy Commissioner K M Tariqul Islam, and Superintendent of Police Devdas Bhattacharya were present during the drive.

Army Alikadom Zone Commander Lieutenant Colonel Md. Alamgir Kabir led the drive.

The operation that started on January 22 will continue for 14 days till February 5.

Bandarban Regional Commander Brig. Gen. Md Sayeed Siddiki said, cross-border drug syndicates engaged the indigenous people to cultivate poppy on their land in remote areas near the border.

Local sources said, a permanent army camp is required in the 'unguarded' bordering area while indigenous people should be given alternative work so that they do not indulge in poppy cultivation.

JAMAAT-SHIBIR ATTACKS IN NILPHAMARI

Tk 750 per head relief for victims, finally!

EAM ASADUZZAMAN, Nilphamari

Over one and a half months after vandalism and arson attack by Jamaat-Shibir and BNP men in three unions of Nilphamari Sadar upazila, Tk 750 per head relief has appeared as a mockery to 194 victims of the barbarities committed on December 12 and 14 last year.

These people belong to Beltoli, Kachari Laxmichap, Dubachhuri villages under Laxmichap union, Polashbari and Toronibari under Palashbari union and Ramganj Haat and Tupamari villages of Tupamari union.

After making list of the real victims, the amount of money was allocated for their rehabilitation and the UNO distributed it yesterday, said Asad Mia, project implementation officer of Sadar upazila.

On the night of December 12, activists of Jamaat-e-Islami and its student front Islami Chhatra Shibir vandalised and torched a number of houses, shops, and warehouses mostly belonging to Hindus and activists of ruling Awami League (AL) in the upazila.

They went into an orgy of destruction, apparently in reaction to the execution of Abdul Quader Molla, assistant general secretary of Jamaat, by a special tribunal in Dhaka, on charge of crimes against humanity during the 1971 Liberation War.

On December 14, Jamaat-Shibir and BNP activists attacked the motorcade of local lawmaker Asaduzzaman Noor (now minister for cultural affairs) at Ramganj Haat in Sadar upazila that led to the killing of five people.

The attackers also vandalised some houses of Hindus and AL activists in Ramganj and Tupamari villages that day.

Noor was then returning after visiting the affected people of December 12 attack and distributing aids to them.

After getting Tk 750 as relief, Chandra Babu, 45, a big trader of Kachari Laxmichap Bazaar, said, "I lost things worth Tk 8-10 lakh in the attack. Now what will I do with this meagre aid?"

"The miscreants set fire to 180-200 maunds of harvested paddy worth Tk 1.2 to 1.3 lakh on my house yard but I received only Tk 750. It's an irony," said Shayam Charan Roy, 62, former chairman of Laxmichap union parishad, also union unit president of AL.

Nilphamari Deputy Commissioner Zakir Hossain said he has brought the matter to the notice of higher
