IFA SHIELD FINAL TODAY

Sheikh Jamal eye historic title

SPORTS REPORTER

When Sheikh Jamal Dhanmondi Club left for Kolkata on January 30 to participate in the 118th IFA Shield, hardly anyone outside the football circuit took notice. Consistent poor performances from the national team made people turn their attention away from the game. But today, people from all walks, whether a football fan or not, will have their eyes glued to their TV monitors as Sheikh Jamal stand on the verge of becoming the first Bangladesh side to clinch this historic IFA Shield title when they take on Kolkata Mohammedan Sporting Club in the final at the Salt Lake Stadium in Kolkata.

The match begins at 6:30pm (GST) and will be telecast live on satellite channel Star Jalsa Movies.

The Dhanmondi outfit, who began the tournament with a 1-2 loss against Mohammedan before beating United Sikkim 3-1, Mohun Bagan 1-0 and lastly outplaying East Bengal 3-0 in the semifinal, will have a chance to exact revenge for their earlier defeat and thereby achieve the unique feat of beating all the three giants of Kolkata.

Sheikh Jamal's Nigerian coach Joseph Afus said the first defeat doesn't count for much as the final will be a different ball game. "We did not play badly that day; rather we were victims of poor refereeing. And we had trouble adjusting to the artificial turf, which we have overcome since. The final will be a different ball game," said a confident Afus.

The team had a practice session of one hour and twenty minutes at the match venue yesterday afternoon and everybody is fit and confident about winning the title, informed team manager Abdul Gaffar over phone yesterday.

"The team is very spirited and everyone is eager to give their all. There is no injury concern as first-choice goalkeeper Ziaur Rahman is back to fitness," said Gaffar.

However, Mazharul Islam, who stood under the bar in the last match, is likely to start as the team management is not likely to tinker with the winning combination. The attack line will be spearheaded by three foreigners -- Sony Norde, Wedson Anselme and Emeka Darlington -- who have scored all the eight goals for Sheikh Jamal in the tournament so far. Mamunul Islam and Sohel Rana will be used as creative midfielders alongside Nasiruddin Chowdhury in defensive midfield position. The four-man defence is likely to be comprised of Yeasin Ahmed, Didarul Islam, Yeamin Munna and Mohammad Linkon.

The opposition are likely to take a counter-attacking approach against Sheikh Jamal's passing and pressing football. Brazilian striker Josimar will likely play up front with Nigerian forward Penn Oriji in the support striker's role and be flanked by Rahim Nabi and Ashim Biswas at the wings. The Black Panthers will have veteran goalkeeper Louis Barreto under the bar.

One thing that will give the home side an advantage is a raucous partisan crowd which will be egging on Mohammedan to keep the title at home. The club's veteran midfielder Rahim Nabi felt it was more than a final.

"This is not a mere final, it has become a battle of pride between the football of India and Bangladesh. I want to score in the final and give Mohammedan the title," said Nabi after a practice session on Thursday.

But the Sheikh Jamal team will have the prayers of millions of Bengalis this side of the border.

PROBABLE STARTING XI:

SHEIKH JAMAL DC: Mazharul (GK); Yeasin, Didarul, Linkon, Yeamin; Nasiruddin, Mamunul (C), Sohel; Sony, Wedson, Emeka.

MOHAMMEDAN SC: Barreto (GK); Nirmal, Sabrosa, Mehrab, Dhanaranjan; Masih, Maneesh, Ashim, Nabi; Penn, Josimar.

Aus in driving seat

David Warner took over from Mitchell Johnson as South Africa's tormentor-in-chief as the Australian opener blitzed a quickfire century to extend his team's huge lead on the third day of the first Test on Friday.

Australia closed the day 479 runs ahead of their hosts at 288 for three in their second innings, a massive lead with two days still to play.

Warner was dropped three times in a characteristically cavalier 115 off 151 balls and featured in a partnership of 205 runs for the second wicket with Alex Doolan, who fell 11 short of a debut Test century.

Shaun Marsh and Michael Clarke will resume on the fourth day as Australia dominated again following a seven-wicket haul for Johnson who helped bowl out South Africa for 206 in their first innings before lunch. Johnson scythed through the batting order as he took three more wickets on the third day to end with figures of seven for 68.

Only AB De Villiers provided any resistance with a defiant 91 that ensured the follow-on target was passed.

Women's chess

SPORTS REPORTER

Five players shared the lead in the Sultana Kamal 34th National Women's Chess Championship with five points each after the end of the seventh round at the Bangladesh Chess Federation Hall room yesterday.

Both the defending champion Sharmin Sultana Shairin and runner-up WIM Shamima Akter Liza lost their 7th round games. Shairin lost against WFM Zakia Sultana while Liza lost against WFM Nazrana Khan Eva. The leaders are: Shairin, Liza, Tania Parveen, Eva and Zakia.

Victories for Barca away to Sevilla and Real Madrid at home to Villarreal mean both sides are now level with Atletico in a three-way tie at the top on 57 points.

The Catalans lead thanks to a superior goal difference and will fancy themselves to rack up a few goals when relegation-threatened Rayo Vallecano visit the Camp Nou on Saturday.

Rayo's visit comes in the midst of a big week for Barca as they sealed their place in the Copa del Rey final against Real Sociedad on Wednesday and will travel to face Manchester City in the first leg of their Champions League last 16 tie on Tuesday.

Gerardo Martino's men's performances against Sevilla and Sociedad also suggested they are finding their form at just the right time of the season, and defender Gerard Pique said they can't afford any slip ups with so many important games on the horizon.

"I don't know if we're back in our stride, but we certainly put in a good performance against a good team," he said after the Sociedad game.

"Now we're coming into the most exciting part of the season, we have three months ahead of us in which we're alive in all three competitions."

"We have to keep up this level in every game because every match that we have left is a Cup final and at this stage of the season there is no room for error."

Barca eyeing goals

AFP, Madrid

Barcelona recovered top spot in La Liga just one week after being knocked off their perch for the first time in 59 league games last weekend as they took advantage of Atletico Madrid's shock defeat to Almeria.

Victories for Barca away to Sevilla and Real Madrid at home to Villarreal mean both sides are now level with Atletico in a three-way tie at the top on 57 points.

The Catalans lead thanks to a superior goal difference and will fancy themselves to rack up a few goals when relegation-threatened Rayo Vallecano visit the Camp Nou on Saturday.

Real Madrid, meanwhile, will once again be without the suspended Cristiano Ronaldo when they travel across the Spanish capital to take on Getafe on Sunday.

Carlo Ancelotti's side are in fine form having won 13 of their last 14 games in all competitions and will be heavy favourites for another three points against a Getafe side that hasn't won since November.

Jose tips L'pool for title charge

REUTERS

Chelsea manager Jose Mourinho believes Liverpool have an advantage in the Premier League title race because they will not be distracted by the Champions League.

Liverpool are the only side in the top four who are not involved in European competition and Mourinho thinks it could be a crucial factor as he again stated his table toppers are not favourites for league glory in May.

"There are teams with more potential than others, obviously. There is another, like Liverpool, with a big advantage with the fact that they don't play in the Champions League," Mourinho told Britain's Sky Sports News on Thursday.

"Playing in this is going to take concentration and energy from the teams that are involved in it. I think it will be good fun."

"When I say we're not the top candidate everyone thinks 'here he is again, with what you like to call the mind games'.

"But it's just my feeling. The league is amazing - it is difficult for every one of us."

Chelsea could only draw 1-1 at lowly West Bromwich Albion on Tuesday and lead the table by a point from Arsenal, with Manchester City a further two points back and Liverpool one behind Manuel Pellegrini's men.
