Kids suffer as the 'honey collectors yet to come'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Lalmonirhat

Students of classes I and II of Khanapara Government Primary School at Madhya Goddimnari village of Hatibandha upazila under the district have to attend their classes on a playground for the last one month as bees made hives in the two classrooms.

There are 152 students and six teachers in the school.

"We have been attending classes in the school field for the last one month, as bees occupied our classroom," said Jibon Islam, a student of Class II.

"We cannot pay attention to our lessons due to noise from the road beside our school," said Asad Islam, another student.

"Bees may bite the students anytime. We urged the headmaster to destroy the beehive two weeks ago but to no effect," said Nazrul Islam, guardian of a student of the school.

Hossain Ali, headmaster of the school, said, "The little kids of classes I and II like to take lessons in the school field as they feel cold inside the classroom during the winter. A week ago, I called a team of honey collectors to destroy the beehives in the classrooms, but they are making delay. The hives will be destroyed as soon as possible."

Children of Seba Sangha Government Primary School at Benapole in Jessore district pray in solemn silence yesterday as the area mourns the tragic death of seven local school kids in a bus accident in Chougachha upazila on Saturday night. Forty-seven other students and teachers were also injured in the accident.

Logs of illegally felled roadside trees seized

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Thakurgaon

Upazila Nirbahi Officer Golam Azam on Sunday asked Awliapur union parishad chairman and Union Land Assistant Officer (Tohoshildar) to seize the trees which were illegally cut down on Millhat Shaslapeyala-Sonahar road of Awliapur union in Sadar upazila last Friday and Saturday.

Following the order, Tohoshildar Abdul Hamid accompanied with gram police (village police) Tiriqul Islam and Ananta Kumar seized around 140 logs out of 200 trees from a local Jubo League leader's sawmill and brought them to union parishad office premises in the afternoon.

Seeking anonymity, a number of local people alleged that the wood traders who felled the trees took a good number of them to elsewhere, seeing the reporters of two national dailies on the spot of Friday and Saturday.

Contacted, Abdul Hamid told this correspondent over cell phone that they seized logs of different sizes from Md. Sumon's sawmill in Millhat area in Sadar upazila. Md. Sumon, president of Awliapur union unit of Jubo League, also a wood trader, said he bought 330 trees from Awliapur Union Federation.

Grabbers asked to remove structures on Shibbaria River

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Patuakhali

Patuakhali district administration has served notices on the grabbers of Shibbaria River under Kalapara upazila of the district to remove structures from both sides of the river.

Deputy Revenue Collector (RDC) Ahsan Ullah Sharifi said ten notices were issued on February 12, asking the grabbers to remove the illegal structures within seven days.

"If the occupiers do not comply with the order, we will take necessary steps against them," the RDC said, adding that ten more notices will be issued soon.

On the other hand, Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers Association (Bela) is preparing to take legal steps against the persons, who have grabbed Shibbaria River.

A two-member team of the association visited different points of the river on February 3 and collected information, list of the grabbers and other documents relating to river grabbing.

Lincoln Bayen, Barisal divisional coordinator of Bela and Md Wahiduzzaman, research officer of the association visited Mohipur, Alipur and Laxmibazar points that have already been grabbed by some influential people.

Shibbaria River is getting narrower day by day as influential people are grabbing it by building structures on both sides of the river.

Nearly 650 structures have been built over the last two years at Mohipur, Alipur and Laxmibazar points while more are under construction on the 20-km river, which falls into the Bay of Bengal in Kuakata.

Fishermen take shelter during floods, cyclones and other natural disasters in the river. But it is now losing its navigability due to indiscriminate grabbing.

Housewife 'stabbed to death for murder'

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Jessore

A housewife has been hacked to death allegedly by her husband for dowry in Sadar upazila.

Deceased Parvina Khatun, 25, was second wife of Mohammad Khokon of Belegat in the upazila.

Sub-inspector Jamal Hossain of Kotwali police station said, on information, they recovered her body from the rail gate of Rahamotpur in the area yesterday and sent it to Jessore Medical College Hospital morgue for autopsy.

The body bore several stab injuries, said the SI.

Parvina's elder brother Abdus Sattar alleged that Khokon often tortured his sister for dowry since their marriage four years ago.

"Parvina was staying at their home in Kaliganj upazila of Jhenidah district for the last three days after she was tortured by her husband for dowry", said Sattar.

Khokon called Parvina on Sunday evening over mobile phone that he had been waiting at Satmile Bazar to bring her home.

Yesterday morning, Khokon informed one of their relatives over phone that Parvina was killed in a road accident.

Officer in-charge Emdadul Haque Sheikh of the PS said police were investigating the matter.
