

Ekushey observed countrywide

CITY DESK

The nation paid homage to those who laid down their lives in 1952 to safeguard the glory of the mother tongue, Bangla, marking International Mother Language Day yesterday.

The day was observed with due solemnity and in a befitting manner through placing wreaths at Shaheed Minars.

The national flag was hoisted at half-mast atop the government, semi-government, private and commercial buildings and educational institutions.

In Chittagong, as the clock struck one minute-past zero hour, Housing and Public Works Minister Engineer Mosharraf Hossain placed a wreath at the Central Shaheed Minar. City Mayor M Manjur Alam also placed a wreath.

Cultural and educational institutions also organised programmes featuring renditions of patriotic songs, poetry recitations and blood donations in the city.

In Rangpur, people wearing black ribbons held a cultural function and an essay competition at the Central Shaheed Minar. Moshirur Rahman Ranga, state minister for LGRD, placed a wreath at the Shaheed Minar.

In Barisal, Bhasha Soinik Kazi Golam Mahboob Foundation organised a programme commemorating Language Movement veteran Kazi Golam Mahboob at his village Kasba in Gournadi. It called for opening a museum on the Language Movement in the area.

Meanwhile, barefooted people paid tributes to the martyrs by placing wreaths at the Central Shaheed Minar.

Karok Natya Goshthi distributed Adarsha Lipi, the book of Bangla alphabet, among the children following an alphabet writing competition there.

In Feni, people placed wreaths at the Central Shaheed Minar in Dagonbhuiyan upazila's Salamnagar, the native village of Abdus Salam, one of the language martyrs.

Speakers at a discussion demanded that Salam's grave be identified at the capital's Azimpur graveyard.

In Panchagarh, Indian enclave people inside Bangladesh brought out a procession and placed wreaths at a makeshift Shaheed Minar in Puthimari enclave in Boda upazila, reports our Thakurgaon correspondent. Besides, Amar Ekushey was observed in Munshiganj and Sherpur.

Hasina said recognition of the day bestowed on Bangladesh the responsibilities to preserve, protect and conduct research on different languages.

Hinting at education in English medium schools, she said if the mother tongue is not learnt first, nothing can be learned properly.

Paying rich tributes to the language and independence martyrs, she said Rafiq and Salam, two Bangladeshi expatriates in Canada with the same names of two language martyrs, took the initiative to get the day recognised by the United

Army-run diesel company exhibits its products

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Diesel Plant (BDP) Ltd organised an exhibition of its products at the capital's Radisson hotel on Thursday evening aiming to promote its business.

BDP Ltd Chairman Lt Gen Anwar Hossain, Managing Director Brig Gen Asif Ahmed Ansary, and civil and military officials, among others, were present.

Operating under Bangladesh Steel and Engineering Corporation, BDP was closed in December 2004 for incurring losses continuously.

With a Tk 74 crore debt, the company was handed over to Bangladesh Army in May 2007 and was made profitable, said an ISPR release.

2 killed by bike snatchers

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Gazipur

A university student was killed and two of his friends injured when muggers attacked them and snatched their motorbike at Tongi in Gazipur city early yesterday.

Mohiuddin Khokon, 23, was son of Jahurul Islam of Duttapara in Tongi and a BBA student of a private university in the capital.

Khokon's two friends Mamun, 23, and Rahman, 22, are being treated in Dhaka Medical College Hospital in critical conditions.

Police said a gang hit their motorbike from behind by a car around 3:00am. As they fell, the criminals stabbed them and made off with the motorcycle.

Khokon was declared dead in DMCH after being taken there by locals.

In Pabna sadar upazila, unidentified criminals killed a youth and snatched his motorcycle at Topgari point of Pabna-Pakshey highway early yesterday.

Md Nadim Hossain Bappi, 30, of Atua village of the upazila, was an engineer of Pakshey CNG refuelling station.

He hit a rope put at a height across the road around 12:30am. After he fell, the criminals slit his throat, said police.
