TOM HARDY

Born: September 15, 1977, London, England
Known For: Inception, The Dark Night Rises, Warrior and Lawless.
Awards: 3 wins and 21 nominations.

SKETCH: YAFIZ SIDDIQUI

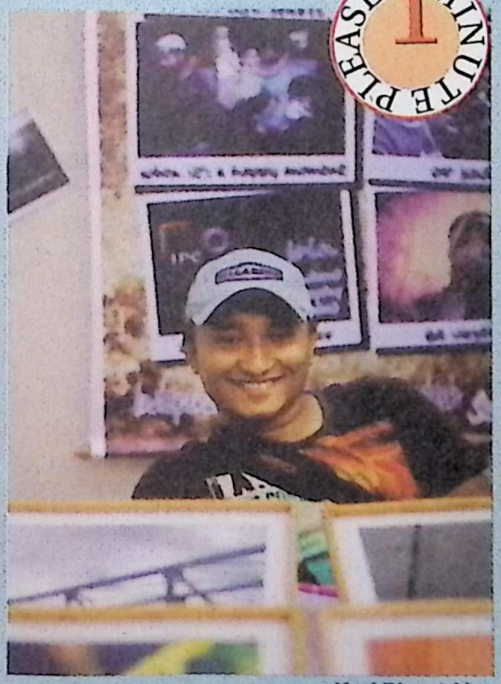

"Storytelling is very important to people, it comforts them, unites us, cheers us up, we can affect change with these arts.

I'm not a big guy anyway. I'm only, what, 150 pounds? I was 190 for 'Batman,' 179 for 'Warrior.'

I'm from a nice, suburban, middle-class family, but my tattoos remind me where I've been.

It's about the characters, it's about the film, it's about the process of making stunning visuals and a huge, epic movie. It doesn't matter if my head was covered in a black plastic bag and I was bouncing around in a space hopper: That's the villain of Chris Nolan's 'Batman!'"

PLEASE! 1 MINUTE

Kazi Riasat Alve

Kazi Riasat Alve was born in June 22 1990, and has already bagged recognition by various global organisations including Sony World Photography Awards 2013, the Ian Parry Scholarship, People & Planet Award 2011, Life on The Street Photography Award. Recentlyn he has won the "Canon Explore to Inspire" photography contest and is going on a trip to San-Francisco to attend a photo workshop of National Geographic. The winner's photo will also be published in the March issue of National Geographic magazine.

Significant achievement
Ian Parry Scholarship
If you were not a photographer
A businessman
Three qualities that a photographer needs
Know thy self, honesty and hard work
First camera
Nikon D3000
Inspiration
I love to do street photography. My subjects are my inspiration.
Something you are looking forward to do in 2014
Want to do something big but do not want to share it now.

— FAYEKA ZABEEN SIDDIQUA