he said.
The commissioner was talking to reporters at his office at the EC Secretariat.
About the recently held upazila elections, the commissioner said they had sent letters to returning officers of around 70 to 80 upazilas with news reports and photos of irregularities and vote rigging asking them to investigate into the incidents.
"After getting reports from them, all the commissioners will sit together and try to find out how the problems can be addressed in future," he said.

Police rescued Saifuddin and three others, and filed a general diary the same night.
The elite force, however, came to know about the matter on Sunday, raided the building, and arrested 12 staff.
Several others, including the owner, have gone into hiding, said Rab.
Rab officials seized several bottles of Phensedyl, bullets, CCTV cameras, several wooden rods and a metal detector.
Rab screened footage of Wajibullah Milon and his cronies holding a man captive and beating him up. The footage also showed Imran drinking from a bottle which Rab claimed was Phensedyl. Wajibullah Milon had lived in Spain for 10 years and rented out the establishment six months back, said Rab officials.

BCL attack on AL leader

AL. Protesting the attack, Babul's supporters barred CU teachers' buses from leaving and entering the campus on Sunday.
Moslem Uddin Ahmed, president of AL Chittagong south district unit, said, "If Babul did anything wrong, there are some other ways to get remedy."
"I want the attackers to be punished," he said, adding that some BCL activists had been tarnishing the party's image.
MA Khaled, general secretary of AL Chittagong north district unit, said the standard of student politics had been deteriorating day-by-day.
"Nowadays the AL leaders are directly forming BCL committees in the educational institutions without holding any council, which deteriorates the quality of student politics," he said.
"A central leader of AL being humiliated like a thief or a dacoit on a university campus is shameful," Salam added.
Humiliating a central leader in public by some junior BCL activists is by no means acceptable, said Advocate Iftakher Saimul Chowdhury, law secretary of AL Chittagong city unit.
He urged the AL central committee to take action against the perpetrators.
MA Khaled Chowdhury, general secretary of BCL CU unit, said that the president and secretary of the BCL central committee would visit CU campus on April 10.
He added that they would discuss the matter with the duo.
Meanwhile, director (transport) of the CU last evening filed a case against 24-24 unnamed miscreants in connection with the Sunday's attack on CU buses, said Md Ismail, officer-in-charge of Hathazari Police Station.

dead at Damdama Bridge near Rangpur Town.
The witness said a memorial plaque was set up near Damdama Bridge in their memory.
Mujibor also said on December 22, 1971, he found blood-stained saris, blouses, petticoats, and shattered bangles at Rangpur Town Hall. "I saw many bodies of women floating on an Indira (large well)."
He learned from the locals that the women were tortured, raped at Town Hall, and Azharul was involved in it.
The witness also said the Peace Committee members occupied Jogodish Babu's house at Badarganj on April 8, 1971 and held meeting there with Azharul being present often.
Mujibor also corroborated the killing of more than 1,200 people at Jharuar Beel on April 17 and 15 people at Moksdepur on April 16 in 1971, and said Azharul was involved in those killings.
The witness said Azharul had been known to him since the 1970 election when the war crimes accused campaigned for Jamaat in Rangpur. Following the testimony, the defence cross-examined him. The proceeding was adjourned till today.
