

3 Rajshahi BCL men held for snatching

RU CORRESPONDENT
A Rajshahi city unit activist of Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) was arrested at Rajshahi University yesterday in connection with snatching on the campus.
Police said there were allegations of mugging against the arrestee, Golam Sarwar Shohag, a resident of Kazla area, near the campus.
Shohag snatched a mobile phone away from Limon Hossain, a BCL activist of RU, on the campus about two months ago, said the victim.
Yesterday, Limon and some three to four RU BCL activists spotted Shohag at Habibur Rahman playground and handed him over to Motihar police after a good beating.
Alamgir Hossain, officer-in-charge of Motihar Police Station, said further legal action would be taken against the detainee after primary interrogation.
Separately, a patrol team of detective police arrested two other BCL men in Rajshahi city while they were trying to mug people in Baliapukur area on Tuesday night, said the law enforcers.
The arrestees were Ayatullah Behesti, suspended vice president of BCL's RU unit, and Saddam Hossain, a local BCL leader.
They were shown arrested in a case over an April 1 assault on a Ruet student and sent to jail, said Ziaur Rahman, an officer-in-charge of the Detective Branch of Rajshahi Metropolitan Police.

TARIQUE'S ABSURD CLAIMS ABOUT HISTORY 'Just a ploy for political asylum abroad'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
BNP Senior Vice Chairman Tarique Rahman is making false remarks about the proclamation of independence and the father of the nation to tempt the government to file sedition cases against him, which he can use to seek political asylum abroad, speakers told a discussion yesterday.
Noting that Tarique already applied to the British government for political asylum, Law Minister Anisul Huq said, "A sedition case against him would only make his case stronger. But the government would not fall into that trap."
"We would definitely take legal steps against him for trying to create anarchy in the country," he said, urging citizens to continue to protest Tarique's falsehood.
The discussion, "Opposition of the proclamation of independence is tantamount to sedition", was organised by Ekatturer Ghatok Dalal Nirmul Committee in the capital's WVA auditorium.
Staying in London since 2008, Tarique claimed on March 25 that his father Ziaur Rahman was the first president of Bangladesh. It was later supported by his mother BNP Chairperson Khaleida Zia. Two weeks later, on April 10, Tarique made another claim that Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman became prime minister "illegally" in 1972.
Shahriar Kabir, acting president of the Nirmul Committee, likened BNP's rejection of the proclamation of independence to Jamaat-e-Islami's post-Liberation War effort to convince other nations not to recognise Bangladesh.
National Human Rights Commission Chairman Mizanur Rahman said, "The nation is insulted whenever history is distorted."

The Daily Star - grameenphone IGNITE Programme activated in 4 more Dhaka schools

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
The activation programme of The Daily Star-Grameenphone "IGNITE", a science competition for school students, continued for the second day in the capital yesterday.
Held at Engineering University Girls' High School, the programme "Introducing IGNITE" was attended by, along with students of the host school, students of St Xavier's School, St Gregory's School and Udayan Uchcha Madhyamik Bidyalaya.
The third and final day of the activation programme in Dhaka will be held today, where students from seventeen educational institutions are expected to take part.
IGNITE, a joint initiative of Grameenphone and The Daily Star, was initiated to inspire students of class VI to X towards science education through different projects, competitions and activities.
With the slogan "Science for the Internet Generation," the competition will be held in Dhaka, Chittagong and Sylhet divisions. Students of these divisions can register for the competition at www.ignite-bd.com.
