

IN BAISHAKH COLOURS

BAISHAKH speaks of renewal, a renaissance of the spirit, a revival of the splendours of the rainbow transformed into music of the soul. In Bangladesh, a land of sublime poetry and profound faith, Baishakh is that time of year when we recreate the old joys and the ancient stirrings of the heart, those that once cast a spell of grandeur on the lives of our ancestors across the generations. In these images of Pahela Baishakh 1421, it is that revival of heritage that we offer. Timelessness is all.

Photo: ANISUR RAHMAN

