FRIEDRICH NIETZSCHE

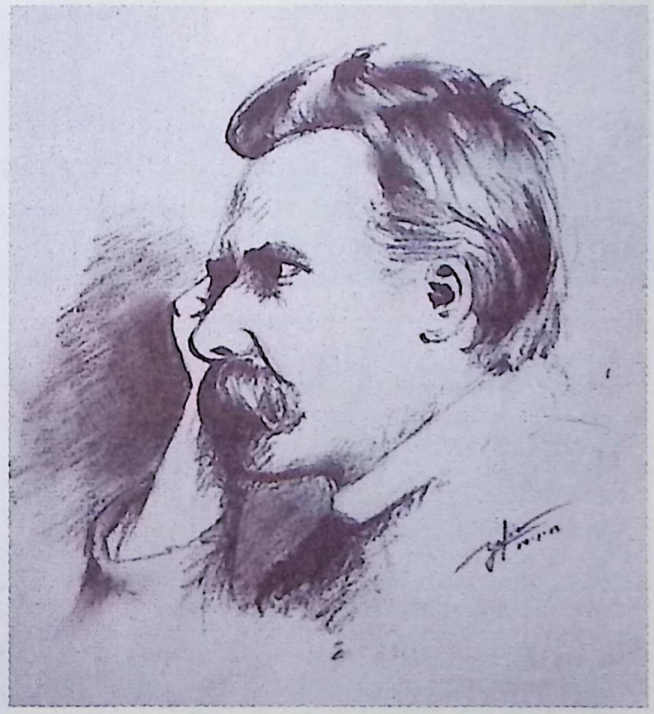

Born: 15 October 1844
Röcken-bei-Lützen, Kingdom of Prussia
Died: 25 August 1900
Weimar, Saxony, German Empire

Friedrich Wilhelm Nietzsche was a German philologist, philosopher, cultural critic, poet and composer. He wrote several critical texts on religion, morality, contemporary culture, philosophy and science, displaying a fondness for metaphor, irony and aphorism.

"Without music, life would be a mistake.

That which does not kill us makes us stronger.

We love life, not because we are used to living but because we are used to loving.

The true man wants two things: danger and play. For that reason he wants woman, as the most dangerous plaything.

After coming into contact with a religious man I always feel I must wash my hands."
