COMMON RIVERS

Dhaka requests Saarc to pursue just sharing

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

Dhaka has urged Saarc secretary general to pursue regional cooperation on the issue of common rivers, since Bangladesh suffers badly for insufficient water during dry season. The call was made by State Minister for Foreign Affairs M Shahriar Alam when Arjun Bahadur Thapa, the newly appointed secretary general of the South Asian Association for Regional Cooperation (Saarc), called on him on Sunday. The state minister also insisted on regional cooperation in the hydropower sector among Bangladesh, India, Nepal and Bhutan, according to a foreign ministry press release yesterday. In response, Thapa assured him of his best efforts to pursue the issues during his tenure. They also discussed on various sectors of regional cooperation which include poverty alleviation, trade, hydropower, connectivity and climate change. The state minister congratulated Thapa on his assumption of office as new secretary general, and assured him of Bangladesh government's fullest support during his tenure. Thapa thanked Bangladesh government for supporting him during his appointment procedure and recalled with satisfaction the contributions of Bangladesh to the Saarc process as one of its founding members.

cases filed by the owner, Kabir Reza. Kabir had filed one of the cases with the police station on Saturday, while the other one was filed with a Dhaka court. Meanwhile, on behalf of the directors, their media representative, Mousumi Nargis Lucky, at a press conference at Dhaka Reporters' Unity yesterday said 120 non-resident Bangladeshis invested around Tk 50 crore through three people, including Kabir Reza, in building the hotel. But the trio did not register the hotel in the investors' names thus depriving them from being shareholders. The trio also did not give the investors their due interest, she claimed. Lucky further said Kabir filed the case to harass the investors. She demanded immediate release of the arrested. Kabir could not be reached for comments.

Calls for dialogue between major political forces

DIPLOMATIC CORRESPONDENT

A visiting German parliamentary delegation yesterday called for substantial dialogue between major political forces in Bangladesh and said the current parliament might not enjoy the acceptance by the people for going the full five years of its tenure. The message was conveyed by a visiting seven-member delegation of the German Parliamentary Committee on Economic Cooperation and Development when they called on Speaker Shirin Sharmin Choudhury at her office. The delegation head, Dagmar Woehrl, appraised Chowdhury of the Bundestag's (German Parliament's) concerns about whether the current parliament could complete its tenure while speaking

Treat migrants as human beings

Prime minister urges global community while inaugurating meet on migration

UNB, Dhaka

Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina yesterday strongly advocated ensuring the dignity and well-being of migrant people and treating them as human beings, not the elements of economic activity or production. "They must enjoy all the rights as every other person," she said while inaugurating the "Global Expert Meeting on Migration in the Post-2015 Development Agenda", organised by Bangladesh and Switzerland, at a hotel in the capital. The prime minister said migration and migrant workers must be portrayed positively in both the origin and destination countries. She said technological advancement, production management and demand for basic services were rising, and these were shaping the global human mobility patterns. "So, the rights of migrants should be central in all discussions and dialogues, and it is the growing need for social protection for migrants and members of their families," Hasina said. She said in Bangladesh, providing employment

FRAUDULENCE ALLEGATIONS

Mir Quasem's two sons face SC inquiry

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

The High Court yesterday directed the Supreme Court registrar to inquire into allegations of fraudulence against the two sons of war crimes accused Mir Quasem Ali in 10 days and ordered action against them on the basis of the probe findings. Attorney General Mahbubey Alam told The Daily Star that Quasem's son Mohammad Bin Quasem alias Salman, a fugitive accused in a fraud case, had said he was on bail in a petition filed on April 24 with the HC challenging the proceedings against him, though a Dhaka court cancelled his bail the day before and ordered his arrest in that case. On the other hand, Ahmed Bin Quasem submitted the petition as a filing lawyer for his brother Mohammad, he said. As a fugitive, Mohammad cannot submit such a petition, while Ahmed as a lawyer also committed fraud with the HC by filing the petition on behalf of a fugitive, he added. The bench of Justice Naima Haider and Justice Zafar Ahmed gave the directives after the attorney general drew the court's attention about the fraud. Ahmed told The Daily Star that he did not know anything about the order but said the attorney general could not make any comments about it talking to a reporter. A resident of the
